President's Message

Dear Graduates of the Class of 2008,

Congratulations! You can be very proud of your success. As you move on to the next stage of your career, I am sure that the time you have spent at Saint Mary's University has provided a strong foundation for the future.

While intellectual life is at the heart of what we are about as a university, we have never felt that our mission stopped there. A Santamarian is someone who, in addition to her/his classroom and laboratory learning, has acquired communication, leadership, and cross-cultural skills; and also has developed a sensitivity to the local, national and global competitive agendas.

I hope you will return to the book many times in later years to relive your memories of Saint Mary's—your professors, your friends, and the events which took place on campus, particularly in your final year. This past year has seen many campus renewal projects and more are planned for the future. So when you return to campus to visit us, you will see the changes!

I hope, too, that you will continue to think of Saint Mary's not only as the place at which you studied, but where you became more of a person, in every way. So please keep in touch with your graduating colleagues and with us. Join an Alumni chapter and be part of the 36,000+ alumni network world wide.

My colleagues and I wish you well.

Yours sincerely,

*J. Colin Dodds, Ph. D.

SMUSA President's Message

Dear Graduates of 2008,

First of all Congratulations! It has been a great journey for us as we celebrate our years of hard work here at Saint Mary's. It is my hope that this yearbook will bring back all the great memories your university experience has given you.

Some of us enjoyed Saint Mary's while living in residence, having perhaps met friends who will stay with us the rest of our lives. Many of us enjoyed living off campus or at home and were enriched by that experience. There were also those of us who worked during our time here at Saint Mary's, taking full and part-time jobs to help pay for the education we value so highly; picking up extra shifts to help pay for classes, textbooks, or perhaps even a beer.

While we are in debt to this university for the knowledge and friendships it has given us we can all look back with fond memories of the different paths we took to enjoy our success as graduates.

As we continue on with our own life paths, I hope that we will all take with us the many great experiences our university education has offered us and most importantly the bonds and friendships we've created and will value for the rest of our lives. While we may forget the classes and exams, we will never forget the friends and how they have helped guide us through a wonderful time in our lives.

I wish all of you the best in your future and don't forget to keep in touch!

Sincerely Yours,

Mitch Gillingwater

STUDENT LIFE

During the academic year, students take part in various events and activities on campus in addition to classes, group meetings, and standing on long lines for a well-deserved treat. Events may be sponsored by SMUSA, societies, or the university itself. Major events in the 2007-08 year include Frosh Week events, the 2nd annual Cafe Santa Maria, and weekly Open Mic nights. The St. Mary's University campus was lively and buzzing with activity from Frosh Week straight through to Convocation.

{ Saint Mary's University }

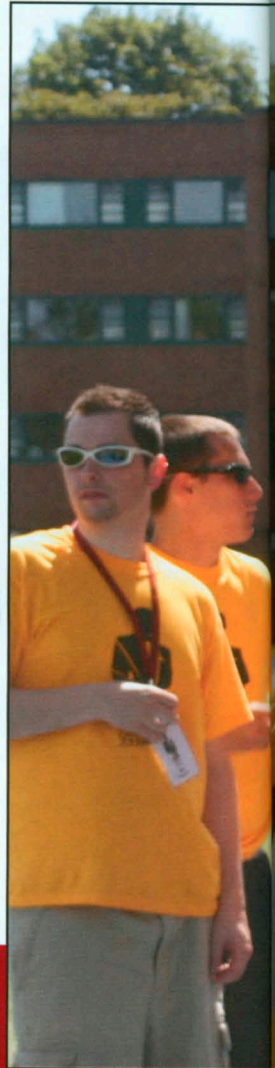

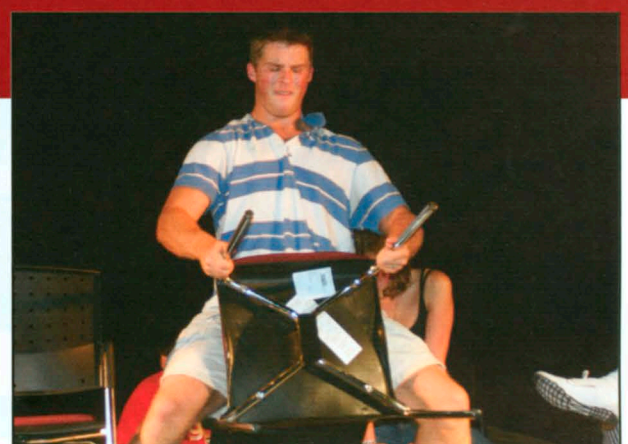

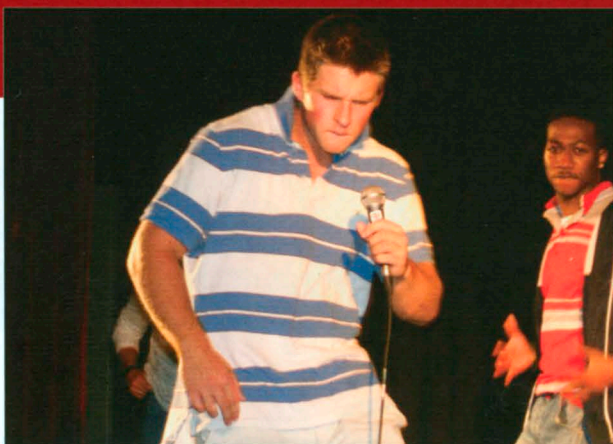

Orientation Week

Orientation Week was amazing with the help of some of the best leaders and facilitators ever to volunteer their time. Everyone, from students to sponsors, worked hard to make the week happen.

The freshmen certainly enjoyed their first week at SMU, and the friends they made during orientation week will be the ones they remember when they leave St. Mary's University.

HUSKIES

Freshman C

Class of 2007

Stranded on a deserted island for three days with wooden bunks, outhouses and Aramark food; this was their training. Only those who made it through the torrential downpour, blistering heat of campfire, embarrassing stories, and grueling games of "Have you Ever" and "Huckle Buckle" were given the chance to call themselves leaders and handed their "Licence to Thrill". This is their week!

FROSH CAMP

Casino Royal

Orientation Week went off with a bang this year, as SMU frosh came out in droves for their chance to play some games and win some great prizes! While Bill Kidney and Complete Control rocked the pub and got students pumped, OWeek leaders ran the table games in the cafeteria.

With black jack, roulette, over under, and plenty more games on the go students had a blast trying to out-skill our leaders and facilitators behind the tables. Between the tables and top secret missions that earned big bucks, over $60 million in play money was handed out by the end of the night. But what did this hard work go towards? We auctioned off all kinds of crazy and fantastic prizes, from dorm accessories to DVD players, tuition credits and even a notebook computer donated by PC Medic.

You want a human interest story? Here's the one from Orientation Week! I have to give a shout out to my favorite Rice floor, they know who they are! After knowing each other for less than 24 hours; new students from Rice came to a realization; only one floor mate didn't own their own computer. Hell bent on changing this, the group did all kinds of deliciously crazy tasks throughout the night and gave all their hard earned cash to the computer-less student. Instead of buying up all kinds of small prizes to share between them, the group waited as other block buyers took tuition credits and accessories eating away at their grand total. Then, as the computer came up and as every leader scrambled to calculate team totals, the floor from Rice had everyone beat with over 24 million in cash. Computer-less no more, one lucky Rice student can avoid those long hours in the den doing his homework!.

Determined to get every dollar they could, students performed outrageous stunts. Every dollar earned would bring the students closer to his or her ultimate goal of buying one of many fantastic prizes. Groups of students pooled their money together in order to get the top prizes.

With about 300 students and our friend, the sun, in attendance, this year's Turfburn was an absolute blast! The afternoon started off with some serious cheering that was heard down on Barrington Street and over on South Street. Between Penguin making us look like... well penguins, Schwartz a-choo-choo-cha'ing away, a frosh adding to Boom Chicka Boom and our SMUSA president Mitch taking us all on a lion hunt, we were pumped and ready to attack the turf. All afternoon teams competed against each other in games of giant volleyball, tire toss, pass the bucket, longest rope and oh so many more classics. When all was said and done only one team won the right to call themselves Turfburn champs, and got the chance to skip lines the rest of the week. After the games, SMUSA and Athletics hosted a BBQ for our newest additions to the SMU community.

IN CONCERT

Oh, what a night! With 3000 students making a statement in the Dalhousie quad, In Flight Safety took to the stage and rocked the house. By the time Joel and the boys stepped on stage the place was wild with each university trying to out scream the other. Despite having smaller numbers SMU put on a show with better cheers and jeers than our university neighbour.

THE SMUMAZING RACE

Even the weather could not stop them. Ten teams got off to a running start, fighting relentlessly against the wind and rain.

Dear Diary,

I just ran the SMUmazing Race. It started and ended on the St. Mary's University campus. My friends and I were one of ten teams running the four-leg race, each with two or three team members. We rolled down a hill, found 20 books in Dartmouth Library, and solved riddles and puzzles. We even met some pretty cool people from Travel Cuts and Z103. It rained pretty much all day, but that didn't stop us. We didn't win, but we definitely had the time of our lives... And we owe it all to SMU...SA

The second annual Café Santa Maria was another huge success this year with suggestions and discussions that involved a sampling of people from every division of SMU. After last years attendance of 200 it was hard to top but even the cold November air didn't keep these committed folks at home. The Student Center Cafeteria was again the venue for this event and talks were steered in the direction of Services, Advocacy and Engagement in hopes of getting feedback on some of the issues that will help SMUSA achieve their goals.

Presents:

The PRICE is Right

international night

This year marked the 10th anniversary of Saint Mary's University's biggest cultural event on campus, International Night 2008. Hosted by Chris MacDougall the SMUSA VP Internal and Cassandra Eberhardt the IDS Undergraduate Society

President, the event showcased a variety of different culture from around the world with delicious international cuisine and performances. The sold out event began with acknowledgements of all of the different continents represented and a special thanks to all of the amazing sponsors who make the event possible year after year. To mark the 10th anniversary the night was full of surprises ranging from incredible door prizes to the hosts treating the crowd to an entertaining salsa dance. Performances this year were upbeat and kept the crowd cheering throughout the night. Acts ranged from traditional Polish and Celtic dances to more modern Latino and Bollywood acts. It was a night that won't soon be forgotten.

ARE YOU SMARTER THAN A smUSA EXECUTIVE?

CONTESTANT #1

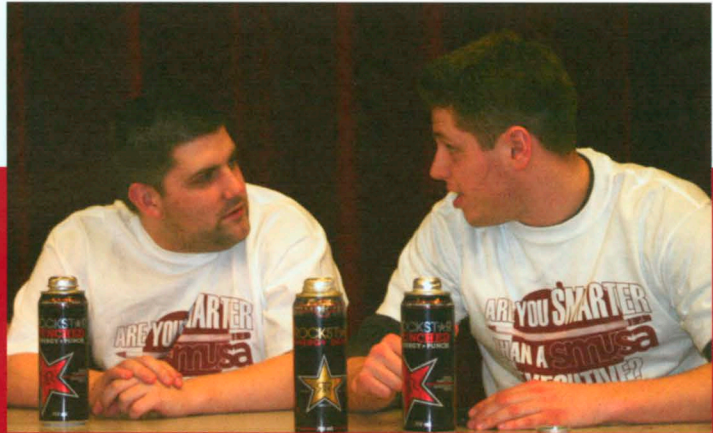

THE EXECUTIVE

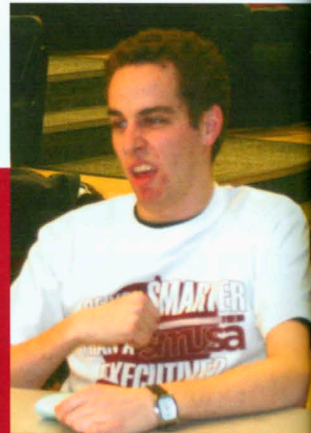

CONTESTANT #2

"First, we need to take the first derivative of the function..."

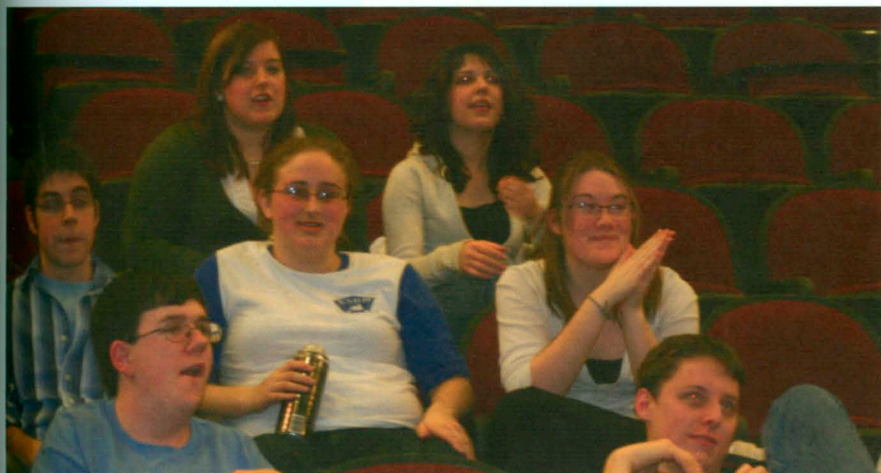

"Did you know the answer to the last question?!"

"Are you insulting my intelligence?!"

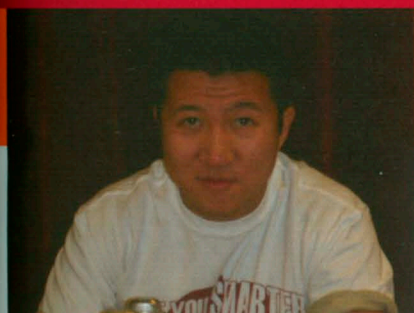

LEFT: To break a tie after answering the skill testing question correctly at the same time, two students play Rock Paper Scissors.

“Are You Smarter than a SMUSA Executive?” was held in March. It was inspired by the new hit television game show, “Are You Smarter than a Fifth Grader?” Although the name was changed to reflect the panel members, the question format remained the same - at the fifth grade level - and the contestants each got three cheats - Peek, Cheat, and Copy. Six SMUSA executive members, both incoming and outgoing, were on the panel. Contestants chose executive members, one at a time, to assist them in answering the questions when necessary. Both contestants won prizes valuing over $2000.

The questions ranged in subject area from general knowledge to mathematics. Some of the questions were:

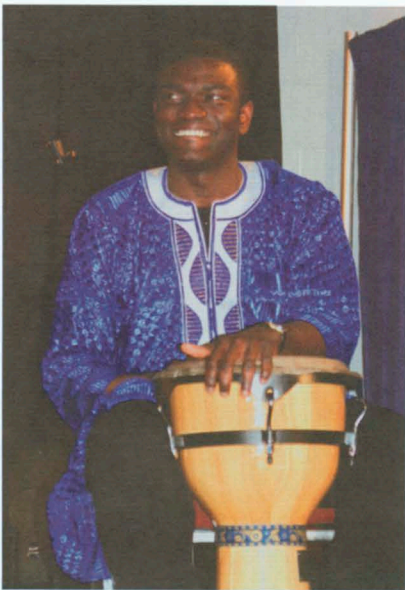

- Name the three primary colors.
- Name the first Prime Minister of Canada.
- What is the answer of a division equation called?
- Name the four Ninja Turtles.
- Name the capital of Nunavut.
- Name the five lines of the musical staff.

AFRICAN

The theme was Celebrating the Journey of life and boy did they!

After taking 3 months to prepare, the much anticipated African Night went off without a hitch. The event (which kicked off at 7:30 on March 15th) was held in the Loyola Conference Hall this year, instead of its venue in previous years at Dalhousie, and this definitely seemed to give it that little something extra. It was hosted by Imokhai O. and Felixina Foster and catered by Aramark Food Services. Featured were an array of traditional African dishes such as Jollof Rice, Fu Fu and Chicken Yessa. The performances, 13 in all, were very well received by the sold out crowd who stayed and danced late in to the night until the hall eventually had to be closed. Aside from the dance performances there was also a play that delivered a very poignant message of never underestimating

Worked into the mix were two small fashion shows that showcased some styles of casual dress native to many parts of Africa. Also attending was the guest speaker Barbara Hamilton-Hinch whom gave a motivating speech regarding issues of Identity, language and their value to the African individual. The highlight of the night was a new award that was presented this year to Kamagaju (Gaju) Karekezi called the African Citizenship Award. This was in recognition of her efforts to make a positive contribution to the school and society through her work with the World University Services of Canada and its student refugee program. African Night was both entertaining and informative for those in attendance. Thanks to the hard working sponsors, volunteers and performers the celebration was brought to life this year and it was a huge success.

St. Patrick's Day

It Just Makes Me Wanna...

March 17, 2008

Dear Diary,

I think today is the first time for the 2007-08 academic year that I woke up, got dressed, and left my place before 12:00 noon. The Gorsebrook opened at 11:00am which still wasn't early enough for me. There was a long line for most of the day in the O'Donnell Hennessy Student Centre.

I arrived in casual green attire, ready to drink green beer with my friends. I proudly wore a green hat, and beads. I don't have any Alexander Keith's antlers. I really wish I had a "Keith's Me, I'm Irish!" t-shirt.

St. Patrick's Day seemed very busy for the Gorsebrook staff, but it was a great day for me to remember... Or forget.

AFRICAN SOCIETY

"It is like a big family to me. It is made of people that are interested about other parts of Africa. It is full of joy and happiness. It brings all people together with great idea to make the society a better place. It's a place that feels like home."
- Homa Abdulrahman

The Saint Mary's African Students' Society (SMASS) is a voice and home for all African students and friends of Africa in the Saint Mary's University community. It is a dynamic group of students who undertake various activities, including cultural events, with the goal of promoting awareness of the rich African culture.

During the 2007-08 academic year the presence of the African Society was felt as the society was involved in various activities such as partnering with the Caribbean Society for the Caribbean fashion show which raised funds for a charitable organization, and working hand-in-hand with the WUSC Society and supporting its student refugee program. SMASS held the first African Christmas dinner at Saint Mary's University which welcomed guest speaker Joseph Nyemah who addressed issues of forced migration, displacement and the presence of African students in the diaspora. One highlight of the year was the creation of the African Citizenship Award. This award will be presented every year to an African student who encompass model citizenship behavior and displays leadership skills, community involvement and awareness of African affairs. This year, it was awarded to Kamagaju Karekezi on "African Night" for her work with the World University Services of Canada local committee and the Student Refugee Program at Saint Mary's University.

"The African Society, this year was awesome. We had so much fun organizing activities like African Night, which was a real success! It was a great way to meet people from everywhere, make new friends, and realize how big and diverse the continent is. I'm really proud to be part of it."
- Alexandra Ouedraogo

"I am really impressed with the African Society this year especially, the turnout from the student body was really good and I met a lot of wonderful people that I would not have met on campus, and the African Night this year was icing to the cake!!!"
- Catherine Sessay

AIESEC

This year was a great year for AIESEC. We saw a lot of growth in our local committee and AIESEC Canada celebrated 50 years of AIESEC. AIESEC Halifax has its office at Saint Mary's University and the organization has been growing for the past four years. Last year, the Saint Mary's University Students' Association gave AIESEC Halifax the "Society of the Year" award.

During this past year, AIESEC Halifax had very successful events such as the 3rd Annual Corporate Breakfast where Karen Oldfield, President and CEO of the Halifax Port Authority was the guest speaker. She talked about the Atlantic Gateway and its relevance in the community. Another event organized by AIESEC Halifax was the 4th Annual World Café where Derek Mitchell, Executive Director of Venture Planning Partners was the guest speaker. He spoke about Corporate Social Responsibility in Nova Scotia.

This year 12 delegates from the local chapter had the opportunity to attend AIESEC's National Congress 2008 in Montreal. During the National Conference, sessions were given in different fields such as media relations, leadership skills, and team management. Also, during National Congress, all the AIESEC local chapters in Canada chose the Member Committee President for AIESEC Canada, Emily Jones

AIESEC Halifax was first place in "Simulation" at National Conference 2008 which involved a one-day simulation of activities resembling how to run a local committee for a year. Networking events, presenting the internship program to companies, meeting with alumni and externals, and sending interns abroad were also a few of the activities offered in simulation in Montreal.

This year, AIESEC Halifax welcomed an intern, Fanny To-var, from Venezuela who is working at Acadian Seaplants (with one of AIESEC's Alumni, John Sewuster) and another intern from Kazakhstan, Nailya Sabirova, will be working at the Halifax Port Authority from May until August 2008.

AIESEC Halifax is proud to have won the bid for one of the most important conferences in AIESEC Canada - National Leadership Development Conference (NLDC) 2009. This conference will be taking place in May 2009 at Saint Mary's University.

The AIESEC Halifax local chapter is proud to have students from very different backgrounds, who represent more than 15 countries, and study in different academic fields, from Biology to Engineering to Management to Finance.

This year 17 of AIESEC Halifax members will be graduating. We wish them all the best in this next stage of their lives, to have a successful career and to meet with them again in the future!

ART OF LIVING

Models at the fashion show for the Care of Children program

Youth today face a number of important choices at home, at school, and socially as they navigate a rapidly changing world. With so many influences giving direction to us, cultivating the qualities of inner strength and compassion is essential for tomorrow's leaders. The Art of Living Society works in collaboration with the Art of Living Foundation, an internationally volunteer based N.G.O., to empower youth to make a difference within their lives and the community they live in. The society encourages people to move from being influenced by their environment, to having an influence on their environment. Its main focus is to provide tools for young individuals to nurture the growth of their inner qualities so that society will have powerful leaders dedicated to building a brighter future.

Among its activities this year the Art of Living Society held several YES!+ (Youth Empowerment and Skills training) programs, free yoga and meditation sessions on campus, as well as a charitable Fashion Show and Cultural Event (which raised funds for the Care for Children Program; program which sponsors children in under-developed countries).

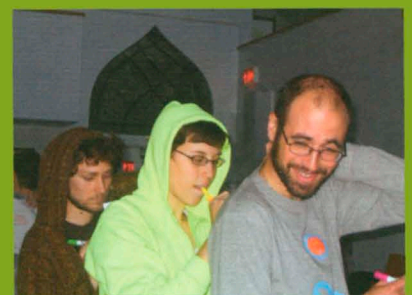

A group of participants in the YES+ program held in 2007

The YES!+ course is an innovative and dynamic educational and life skills program for young students and professionals. YES!+ empowers young people with tools to eliminate stress, rid the system of negative emotions, develop strong social and leadership skills, heighten awareness and increase mental focus.

To live life fully and freely is an art, requiring skills, intuition, creativity and knowledge. The Art of Living Society, through its many innovative programs, brings these values to our university and the city we live in by strengthening the individual. The Society does this in collaboration with its parental organization, the Art of Living Foundation, by offering programs that eliminate stress, create a sense of belonging, restore human values and encourage people from all religions and cultural traditions to come together.

Participating in an activity as a part of the YES+ program

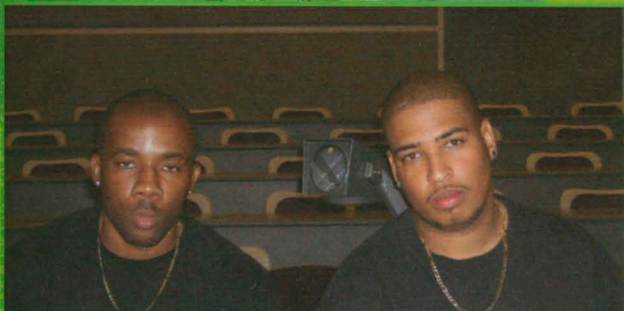

CARIBBEAN SOCIETY

Caribbean students attending Saint Mary's University comprise this society that has been in effect for over 10 years. The society provides a comfort level for students from the Caribbean Islands who may find it difficult to adapt to life in Halifax. The various activities and events give students an island atmosphere that eases their transition into university life and the new culture of Canada. The society is also involved in charity events each year and attends church regularly. It consists of over 100 members who receive membership cards upon paying dues of $5 per semester. This allows them to receive discounts at all society events as well as other great perks. Each year, during the winter semester, the Caribbean Society co-hosts the much anticipated showcase of Caribbean culture and food allowing the Halifax community to experience one night of Caribbean flavour known as Caribanza. As we have in the past, the society will continue with the overall direction which is informing others about the cultural composition of the many Caribbean islands and their people. We want to be known and understood in the diverse array of nationalities at Saint Mary's and will devote our time and efforts to accomplish such a venture. We intend on "Working together as one, to build a better tomorrow for our Society" The Caribbean Society is open to all SMU students and the wider Halifax community alike we encourage everyone to sign-up as we work together to become ONE PEOPLE, ONE CARIBBEAN, ONE SOCIETY

SAINT MARY'S UNIVERSITY CARIBBEAN SOCIETY OBJECTIVES

- To encourage closer cooperation among Caribbean peoples
- To promote good relationships between Caribbean people and Canadians; and also with other nationalities
- To coordinate the activities and the influence of our students on the affairs of our countries, and to help students develop sound leadership.
- To share the culture of the Caribbean with others and to cooperate effectively with other organizations in striving to make the Caribbean community and personality a working reality

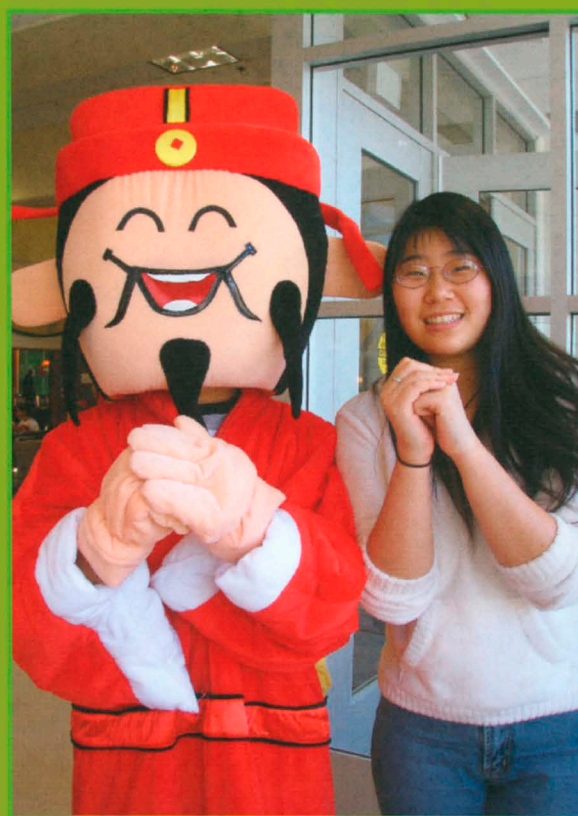

CHINESE STUDENT SOCIETY ASSOCIATION

SMUCSSA (SMU Chinese Student Society Association) was founded in March 2004, and represents one of the largest ethnic communities at Saint Mary's University. With more than 300 registered members and a considerable population of Chinese students on campus, the routine administrative work has been conducted by Mr. Feng Li and his team with their high efficiency and effectiveness.

SMUCSSA has at least three large events every academic year as well as many other minor on-campus activities. Especially, The Chinese Student Society Association would like to mention three major events for the academic year: Chinese New Year's Party, Mid-Autumn Celebration Party, and Chinese National Day Celebration. All of these events provide a chance for Chinese students to meet each other and function as windows for people from other countries to learn about China, and to understand Chinese culture.

SMU Chinese Student Society Association is an open association; we welcome people to join us, to have fun together and to learn from and about each other, regardless of nationality or origin.

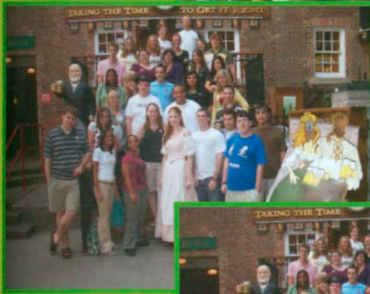

COMMERCE

The Sobey School of Business Commerce Society was founded 99 years ago. The Commerce Society was created to enrich the university experience of all commerce students by acting as a liaison between commerce students, student groups, and faculty, in addition to hosting various academic and social events throughout the year.

We operate with the goal of uniting students to employers, providing Commerce students with a social, professional, and educational experience that is second to none. The Sobey School of Business Commerce Society also strives to ensure the development of a community spirit within the business student body and provides opportunities for Commerce students.

The Sobey School of Business Commerce Society works to accomplish these goals by hosting a Wine & Cheese, Career Expo, and a Business Dinner.

Membership is encouraged for all commerce students to aid in career goals.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION SOCIETY

The Conflict Resolution Society worked hard this year to maintain and create connections with Peaceful Schools International and the Conflict Resolution Project, where SMU students are sent into schools in Northern Ireland to promote peaceful resolution. The society worked with a group of children from Oxford Elementary School in Halifax, and then worked overseas.

Belfast and Northern Ireland left impressions on the 12 SMU students who spent their Reading Week in the country. We met the Deputy First Minister Martin McGuinness and the British Irish Secretariat, and worked with hundreds of students in primary and secondary schools around Belfast and Ballymurphy.

We visited St. Bernadette's Girls Primary School to meet with the teachers we would partner with throughout the week, as well as the Peaceful Schools International workers we worked with in preparation. The teachers were more than welcoming to all of us. After Hetty van Gurp's inspirational speech, we were all ready to get into schools and spread the word on sustainable peace.

After an early morning visit to Stormont and a closed meeting with Martin McGuinness MP, we headed to the Boys Model Secondary School in North Belfast. The boys, who showed interest in becoming student ambassadors, were phenomenal. They listened and partook in our workshop, with the odd laugh at our quirky accents. After the session which focused on conflict resolution and anger, we had a chance to talk freely with the young men. From Guitar Hero and Lucky Charms, to "what the hell is poutine?" and stories of sectarianism at work, nothing was off limits in our conversations. It was interesting to see how easily the conversation shifted from conversations about cell phones to ones of paramilitaries or running through the Catholic area in a Rangers track suit on St. Patrick's Day. It was an interesting first look into the lives of students living in some areas of Belfast.

The next day we headed to St. Bernadette's Primary School, an all girls school in West Belfast. The adorable young ladies certainly knew our topic well; bullying. We were shocked to hear such inclusive answers to our questions about bullying. It was even solemn to realize such young faces were hiding such grave experiences. At the end of our stay at St. Bernadette's, the girls practiced their school play for the group. After a moving performance of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, we had memories to last a lifetime.

Those little instances are what made us all realize what we were doing can have a positive impact. In a conversation with several of the students we were told, "It means a lot more coming from you big kids than it does the same teacher who we listen to every day". As if that wasn't enough, when the gang was eating lunch, we looked out into the playground to find well over one hundred children waving emphatically at us, a group of 'big kids' from Canada. Talk about your celebrity moment.

The last school we visited was the all boys school of St. Aidan's Primary School in Ballymurphy, an area plagued with a skyrocketing suicide rate. Walking into the school courtyard, past the razor-wire fences, after the gates were opened from an indoor security system, there stood a large mural depicting a suicide helpline and counseling service. The boys told some of the most haunting stories we had ever heard, from fathers being kidnapped to having to taxi into school everyday to avoid having death treats followed out, but they were still willing, even eager to learn. Some of the brightest faces came from St. Aidan's, and an impromptu game of basketball against the 'big kids from Canada' showed all of us that despite having been through terrible times, these kids are still kids, children who like to play and have fun.

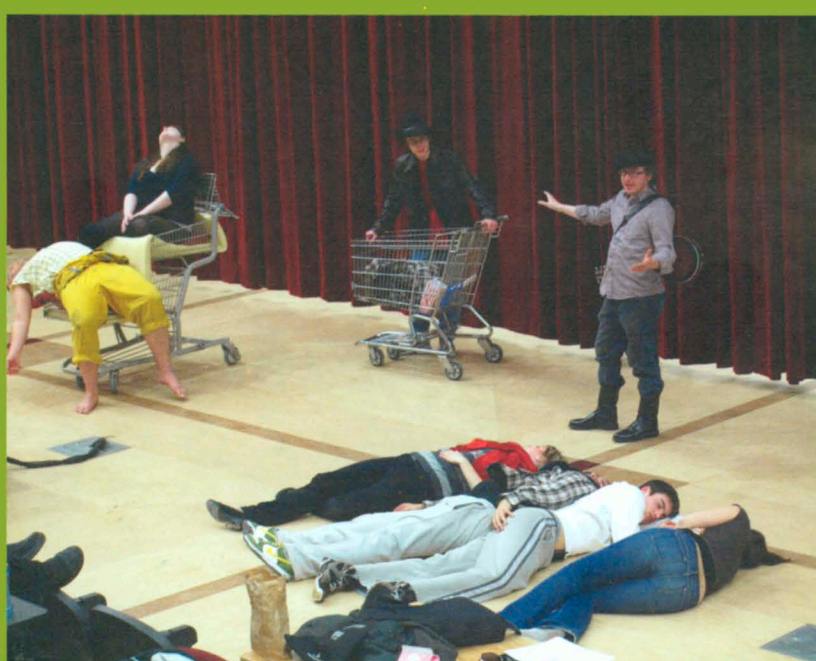

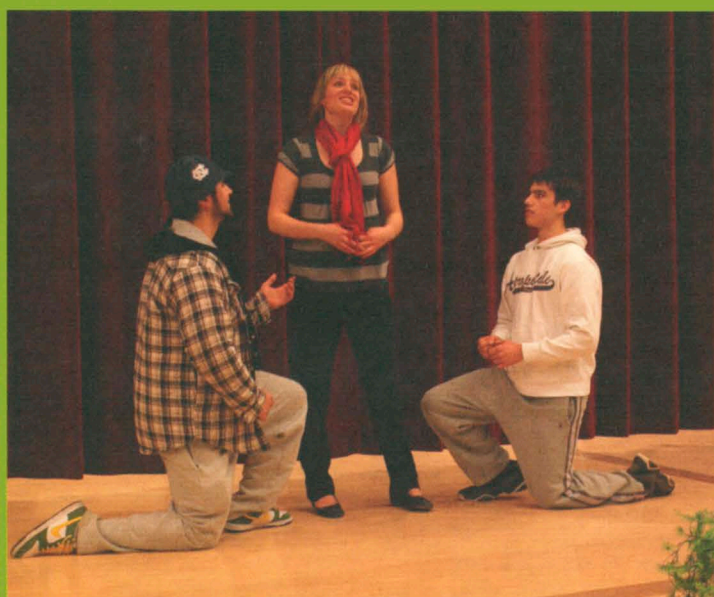

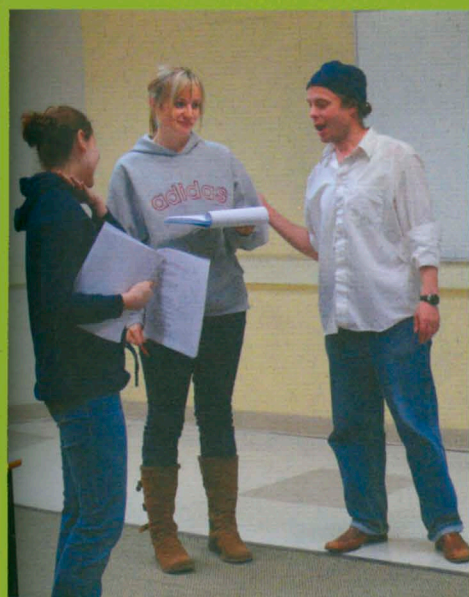

The little ladies and gents we encountered gave us many precious memories, along with many solemn ones. Stories of jailed or killed family members rolled off their tongues so matter-of-factly during our peace tree exercise; we realized the realities of these children are of our worst night mares.

The Conflict Resolution Project left incredible impressions on all of us; memories we shall never forget. As a group, it is our hope that we were able to leave a few valuable impressions of our own. It is safe to say that we learned as much, if not more, from those children as they learned from us.

SMU DRAMA SOCIETY

1907 is the first recorded date of the Santamarian Dramatic Class, producing annual plays, which became the College Playshop in 1940. In 1954, it became the SMU Drama Society. Since then, we have produced an unbroken string of plays which continues today, with a cast and crew from the university community of students and alumni, staff and faculty.

2007-2008 productions were Little Women, based on Louisa May Alcott's novel of the same name and directed by freshman Kate Basile, and Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, directed by local actor Marty Burt. Recent productions have included Oscar Wilde's Importance of Being Ernest (directed by Natasha McLellan) and Shakespeare's Twelfth Night (directed by SMU professor Glenn Walton).

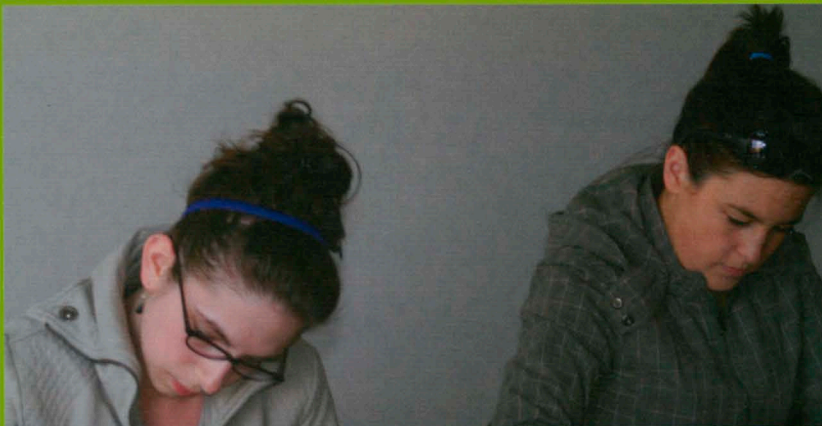

LINGUISTICS

The first ever Linguistics Society was founded in September 2007 to act as a voice on behalf of the students enrolled in the tri-university linguistics program; we are happy to have representatives from Dalhousie University and Mount St. Vincent University on our Board of Executives.

The society's main goal has been to act as a liaison between students and faculty in order to promote the program and address any concerns that members may have while increasing the level of information being relayed to students. This year we have been able to act as a resource for our students in several different ways; we are offering volunteering opportunities, which are being officially logged, and are recognizable on academic and professional CVs; we offer tutoring, research help, study tips, and organize study groups for students taking linguistics related courses. We have worked with the Employment Center to organize a successful panel discussion regarding potential careers related to this field. Additionally, we are putting together information regarding graduate programs at schools across the continent and are working in collaboration with the program faculty on several other projects.

We exist for the students, and new members are always welcome!

Saint Mary's University's Model United Nations Society (SMUMUNS) is associated with Dr. Marc Doucet's POLI 4402.2 Model United Nations course. This year, our delegation of 18 students traveled to Model United Nations conferences in Ottawa (CANIMUN) and New York City (NMUN) in order to represent the countries of Mali, Cameroon and Chad. Our primary goal was to gain intimate knowledge of our country and how it relates to the international community, and then put the information to practical use in a simulation of the United Nations. Participating in both conferences enabled us to further our education as we learned about international organizations and foreign policy in a real world setting that can not be taught in a classroom.

We are proud to say that SMUMUNS received three awards at the conference in Ottawa this year; Brian LeBlanc received Best Delegate award, Rebecca Winn received Outstanding Delegate and Danny Melvin received an Honourable Mention. SMUMUNS is grateful to the university community for its support and various contributions toward our numerous fundraising efforts. Without this support, SMUMUNS would not have been able to represent Saint Mary's University to the best of our ability.

PAWS

The Partnership for Animal Welfare Society (PAWS) of Saint Mary's University is based on the principle that animals are complex beings, deserving of our consideration and respect. Its goal is to raise awareness of issues critical to the welfare of animals, and encourage compassionate choices that are consistent with the best interest of all fellow creatures, human and non-human alike. This year was a busy one for the newly founded society, from bake sales, the SMU Blanket Drive, movies screenings, and the seal hunt protest to the start of its own non-profit organization, Planned Pethood.

WUSC

"EDUCATION CHANGES THE WORLD"

The World University Service of Canada (WUSC) is a Canadian International Development NGO based in Ottawa, and is comprised of a network of individuals and post secondary institutions. Its mission is to foster human development and global understanding through educational training, and works with partner organizations on development programs in 10 countries around the world to achieve this.

One of WUSC's main programs is the Student Refugee Program. This program is currently operating on 60 campuses across Canada including SMU, where we have successfully sponsored 23 students in the past 24 years. The goal of this program is to provide refugee students an opportunity to study at a post-secondary institute and resettle in Canada as permanent residents.

The sponsored students come from refugee camps and urban centres in Kenya, Malawi and Thailand. Students are sponsored for one year with the help and contributions from the university, Residence Life Office, Book Store, Saint Mary's University Faculty Union, International Centre, SMU-SA and Aramark. The WUSC Local Committee, and its staff and faculty representatives, plays a vital role in supporting each sponsored student as they adjust to a new life in Canada.

In addition to supporting the Student Refugee Program and welcoming our 23rd sponsored student to SMU, the WUSC Local Committee has been very active on campus during the 2007-2008 academic year, educating the university and wider Halifax community about international development issues through events such as Stand Up and Speak Out and the presentation 'Afghanistan: A Nation at the Crossroads' by Mirwais Nahzat during International Development Week. The Local Committee also promoted international learning opportunities provided through Uniterra in which one SMU student was selected to travel to Ghana for the 6 week Uniterra International Seminar scheduled to take place during Summer 2008. Other events focused on fundraising such as the International Market and Live Music Fundraising Event, bake sales, a Leap Year Basket raffle, and coat checks at International Night and Africa Night. A group of Local Committee members also attended the WUSC Annual General Assembly in Ottawa in November, 2007.

The members of the SMU WUSC local committee are dedicated to the society and have worked hard to make WUSC a success this academic year. A big thank you all the members who made WUSC possible this year!

Residence Section

Many Canadian and International students choose to live on campus at Saint Mary's University. There are three residences on campus to choose from, each with its own features. Each residence has a Residence Coordinator who leads the team of Residence Assistants living on each floor.

The Residence Assistants are energetic, fun, knowledgeable students who help to make students living on campus as comfortable and well-informed as possible. They distribute information, encourage attendance to campus events, and lead fun floor events to keep floor members engaged.

LOYOLA

Loyola is a 22-storey high-rise building which houses 424 students. Each floor has four suites, each with four single rooms, one double room, and shared (private) washrooms. The residents of each floor share a common room with a lounge and kitchenette.

Men's BASKETBALL

The Huskies had a great 2007-08 season, playing like champions from the beginning, beating Acadia 88-82 to the glorious end where they fought Acadia for the Atlantic University Sport Championship and came out victorious with a 75-72 win. The team won 80% of the home games and 60% of the road games.

SMUSA

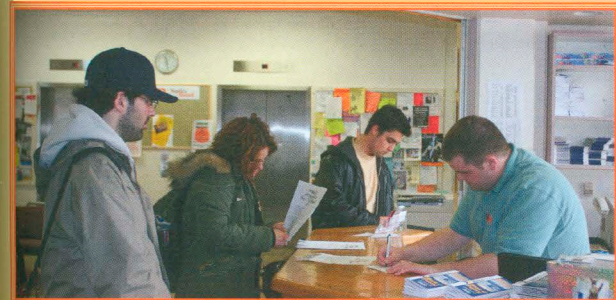

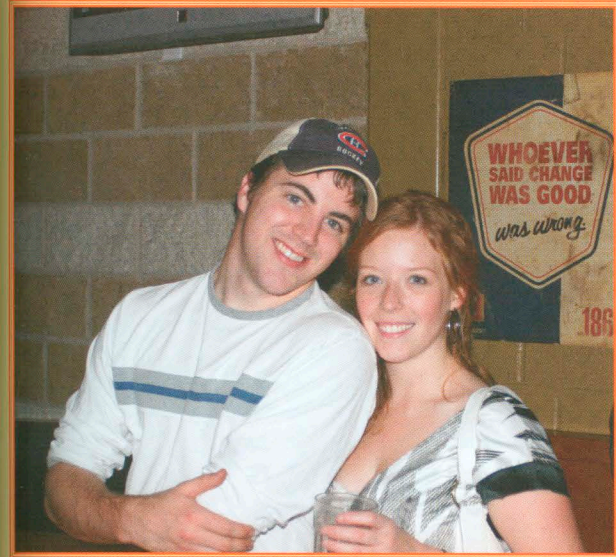

STUDENTS WORKING

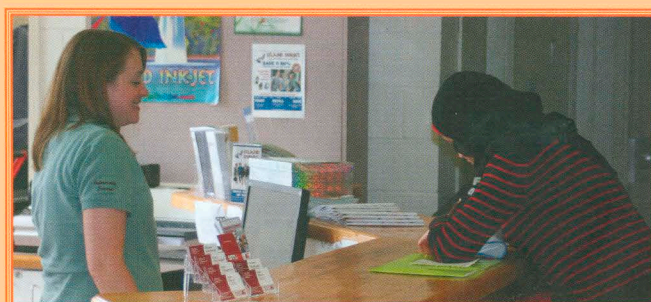

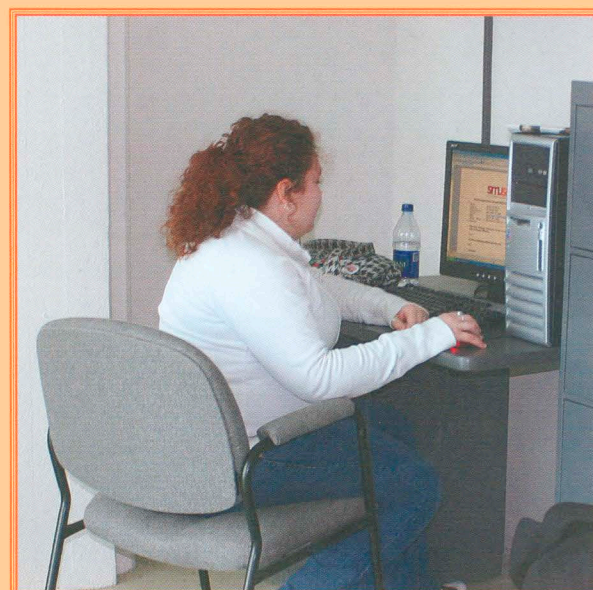

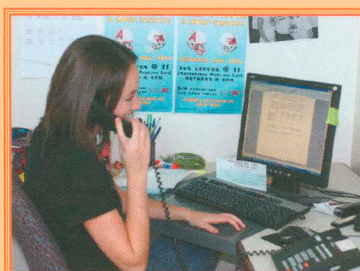

The Saint Mary's University Students' Association (SMUSA) employs 100 students, during the academic year, in 8 major departments. The departments provide varying services to students including food and liquor services, information services, photocopying, scanning, yearbook production, safe drives to and from campus, and a wide variety of on-campus events.

SMUSA is governed by the Students' Representative Council (SRC) which is made up of sixteen students, each representing a different sub-group of students. SMUSA also has a great full time staff to oversee operations, provide administrative assistance and maintain a high level of service and productivity, even as executive and council members, managers, and staff members change on an annual basis.

Events & Promotions

Ashley-Dawn, Myra El-Bayoumi (Manager), and Jennifer Schwartz

Myra El-Bayoumi is a third year Commerce student with a double major in Marketing and Global Business Management

In the 2007-2008 year the Events and Promotions department was introduced to the SMUSA family. E&P planned events and ran around campus promoting them. The department employed three students and was responsible for most of fun activities at Saint Mary's University.

This year, many new events were introduced to the Saint Mary's University community. Some of last year's favorites like the SMUmazing Race and the Price is Right were repeated with excellent turnouts. Over $2000 in prizes was given away in those two events alone! E&P put on two Halloween parties, simultaneously, again this year; one in the Gorsebrook Lounge and an all-age dance party in the Loyola Conference Hall. Both venues were packed and the creativity of students' costumes continued to amaze us. E&P introduced its first annual fall festival, Oktoberfest, and its success guaranteed its reappearance in the coming years. Events included the all-age Harvest dance with a mandatory dress code of jeans and t-shirts, and the Haus partying featuring three bands performing live music in the Gorsebrook. Among our new events this year was "Are You Smarter than a SMUSA Executive?"; a fun spin on the popular game show "Are You Smarter than a Fifth Grader?". This event was sponsored largely by Coca Cola and the total prize value exceeded $2000! Winter Carnival featured a formal ball this year as well as the ever-popular dodgeball tournament. Overall, it's been a great year for Events and Promotions and we look forward to 2008-2009!

Liquor Services

The Liquor Services Team

Liquor services is an extremely unique department, where functions vary from sporting and student events, to faculty and exterior functions. No matter what the event or weather conditions; the hardworking and dedicated staff members are there to provide top of the line service to our valued customers. Some highlights of the 2007/2008 year were serving at the Uteck Bowl and other football games, Hockey Games, Frosh Week events, the Faculty Christmas Party, and International night. It is always a highlight for staff to not only meet faculty members, professors, and fellow students during events; but also members of the community. On behalf of the Liquor Services department of 2007/2008; we would like to extend a huge thank you to Graeme MacKenzie, Rob Finn, Pamela Feltmate, Lorne Caborn and the Gorsebrook staff, and all other SMUSA staff members for always lending a hand when we needed it. Finally, we would like to thank you, our dedicated customers, for your continuous support, and congratulate the graduating class of 2008. Best of Luck to all in the future and see you next year!

Emily MacLean is a 4th year honours student with a major in Linguistics. She had one year of experience in the department before becoming the manager.

Gorsebrook Lounge

The Gorsebrook Lounge Staff

The Gorsebrook Lounge is the center of the social scene on the campus of Saint Mary's. It has been in operation for over 30 years and continues to be an integral part of SMUSA. Open throughout the week and weekends for special events the Lounge operates year round serving students, staff, alumni and guests of the University community.

The Gorsebrook Lounge continues to draw large crowds for popular events such as the Athletic Auction (put on by the Athletic Council), the Stop Light Party (hosted by the Grad Class), Open Mic nights and of course Saint Patrick's Day which saw record breaking sales for the third year in a row. With any profits in the Lounge going directly to fund other SMUSA initiatives it's no wonder students continue to make it their place to spend time with their friends.

The staff and management would like to thank all of its loyal customers and look forward to serving you in the future as alumni. Cheers!

Lorne Caborn
Full-time Manager

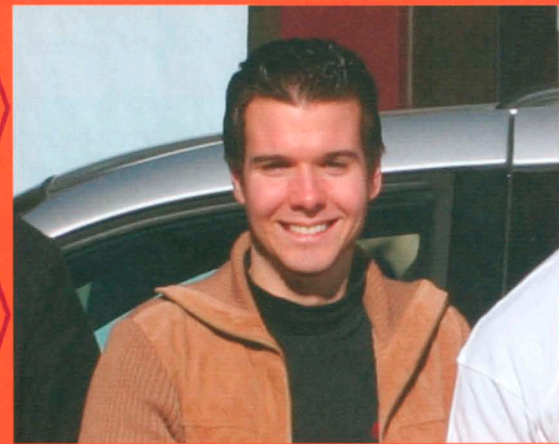

Husky Patrol

The Husky Patrol Staff

Husky Patrol provides free and safe rides home to the students, faculty, and staff and Saint Mary's University. This service is provided through a partnership between SMUSA and the university security. Service is provided between 6:30pm and 12 midnight.

It has been a pleasure serving the university community during the 2007-08 academic year. The statistics for this year have proven that this is an important service to provide, and the Husky Patrol department is happy to have met the need for safe drives. We look forward to continuing to serve the students of Saint Mary's University with a new manager to lead the team in the 2008-09 academic year.

Information Desk

FRONT: Robert Harris, Glentine Wattley, Meghan Van Gaal
BACK: Jackie Levy (manager), Allison Heard, Megan Tower, Mara Potter, Dalia Dajani

Jackie Levy is a 4th year Commerce student with a major in Accounting and a 2nd year manager with three years of experience at the Information Desk.

The Saint Mary's University Students' Association Information Desk is found on the first floor of the O'Donnell-Hennessey Student Centre. The Information Desk offers students many services such as sign-ups and pick-ups for Husky Patrol, project binding, a courtesy phone, U-Pass distribution, bus tickets, bus passes, envelopes, photocopying, faxing and, of course, access to campus information.

This year, Jackie, Meghan, Ali, Mara, Dalia, Megan, Robert and Glentine were available Monday to Friday from 9am to 12am and on Sundays from 6:30pm-12am (exclusively for Husky Patrol services) to offer assistance and help answer questions.

Marketing

Andria Power, Jonathan Morse (co-manager), Jeffrey Levitt (co-manager), Keenan Sutherland, Melissa Humphries

The Marketing Department serves two main functions. Students, societies, and SMU departments can use the department's in-house designers and printers to create and print materials for their project needs. Marketing also handles most of the SMUSA related media including print, SMUSA.ca, and the HDMD screens located around campus. Marketing has been around in some form for over 20 years! This year, the department was open from 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday.

This year went by so quickly. The department focused on increasing usage of sustainable media such as the Media Screen's and website. The media screens are unique for their ability to display large, bright material with comparatively low impact on the environment. We also used the website to host material typically offered in paper form such as society forms and nomination forms. Reducing waste and using new mediums is imperative in SMUSA's new Sustainability Policy and will be a theme for this department in years to come.

Jeffrey Levitt (below) is a 3rd year Arts student with a double major in sociology and criminology

Yearbook

Alicia Wallace (Editor), Erin Storer (Assistant Editor), and Joseph Purcell (Photographer)

This year has been exciting and adventurous for the Yearbook Department. With a relatively new staff of three people, the learning curve was quite steep. All staff members had to dive into the work, head first, and manage to keep the department afloat.

Alicia Wallace, the editor, worked as the assistant editor for one year before taking on the position of editor. She was accustomed to doing more administrative tasks, and had to quickly learn to use graphic design programs in order to make the yearbook - a keepsake for all graduates of Saint Mary's University. Erin Storer joined the team in the second semester. With a few hours of training and practice, she may not have been ready to start making pages, but she certainly did! Joe Purcell, the photographer, had a learning curve of his own to deal with, operating a new and complex piece of equipment - the fancy yearbook camera. The members of the Yearbook Department, as can be expected from a small team, worked very closely together, often wearing different hats, accepting new tasks and challenges, all in an effort to get the job done.

The Santamarian, the book of treasured memories that all have come to know simply as "The Yearbook" which you have in your possession, is the culmination of months of photography, interviewing, writing, editing, designing, and printing. It is our hope that as you turn each page of this book, there is a flicker of a flame, a flash of light, as memories are brightened, sharpened, and brought back to you in a way that you never knew you could see them. Take this book, look through it, keep it, and treasure it. Remember, every time you look at it, all that it embodies and represents - the true spirit of a Santamarian.

Alicia Wallace is a 3rd year Commerce student with a double major in Economics and Finance, and a first year manager with one year of experience in the department.

Volunteer Coordinator

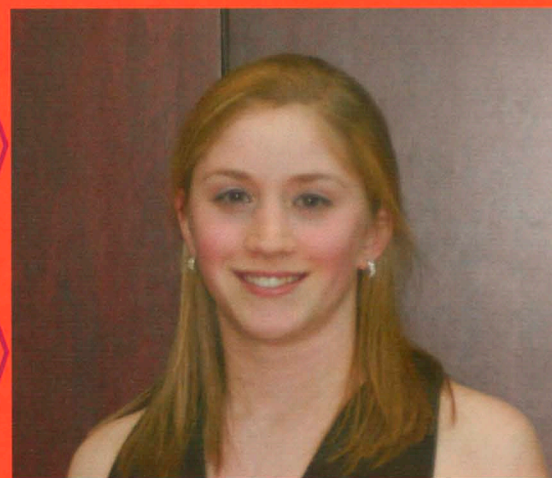

Laura Slauenwhite (middle) is pictured with two dedicated volunteers who made themselves available for various charity and fundraising events during the academic year.

This was the first year for the Volunteer Coordinator position, which fell under the Programmer/Coordinator position in past years. With more time available for volunteer activities, we were able to execute many charity and Random Acts of Kindness (RAK) events. The RAK Squad is a group of students from SMU who perform good deeds all over Halifax. These student volunteers can be seen out and about in their bright orange t-shirts and maroon hats, making people's day with contagious smiles. The RAK Squad, initiated in 2005, is a joint project of the Pride In Our Shared Neighbourhood Committee and Saint Mary's University Students' Association (SMUSA).

This year, over 450 volunteers were recruited and the RAK Squad reached over 65 members, growing after every event. We partnered with charitable organizations to make a global and international impact. We participated in the Chronicle Herald's Raise a Reader event in October, helping to raise more than $7,000 for family literacy programs throughout Nova Scotia. Other events included Bowling for Critters (a fundraising event for the Bide-A-While Shelter), visits to nursing homes, grocery bagging, and free hot chocolate give-a-ways during the winter months. Some international events RAK participated in are: UNICEF's Spread the Net Campaign, raising funds for mosquito nets for children in Africa; Canfar's Have a Heart Campaign, promoting AIDS awareness, and St. Valentine's Day Hair Massacure, with proceeds going to the Make-A-Wish Foundation. During International RAK week, the RAK squad served at local soup kitchens, helped make African bracelets for African Heritage Month at Inglis Street School, and raised funds for CIBC's Boys in Red Trust Fund. This year we also initiated a Charity Events Committee that consisted of several dedicated volunteers. This committee met to discuss potential charity ideas to better meet the interests of SMU students.

I would like to thank all the volunteers that made this year such a success. I am honoured to have met so many students, from giving out hot chocolate to volunteering alongside them. I have had so much fun as the Volunteer Coordinator and I hope you enjoyed your year just as much as I did.

Laura Slauenwhite, Volunteer Coordinator, is a third year Science student with a major in Biology.

Charter Day

Charter Day is an annual dinner and awards ceremony hosted by the Saint Mary's University Students' Association (SMUSA). This year Charter Day was on March 29, 2008 in the Loyola Conference Hall. Adam Harris, outgoing Science Representative on the SRC and incoming VP Academic, hosted the event with Erin Garner, the outgoing Commerce Representative on the SRC. Throughout the evening, pictures taken over the course of the academic year were displayed, refreshing memories, and sparking discussion and laughter. Following the dinner services and presentation of awards, Mitch Gillingwater, outgoing President of SMUSA gave remarks. Near to the end of his remarks, he turned everyone's attention to a presentation of pictures of SMUSA departments and his fellow executive members. There was a humorous commentary to accompany the latter, ending the evening with laughter, leading everyone to leave in high spirits. All guests were invited to attend the after party in the Gorsebrook Lounge.

Maroon & White Ball

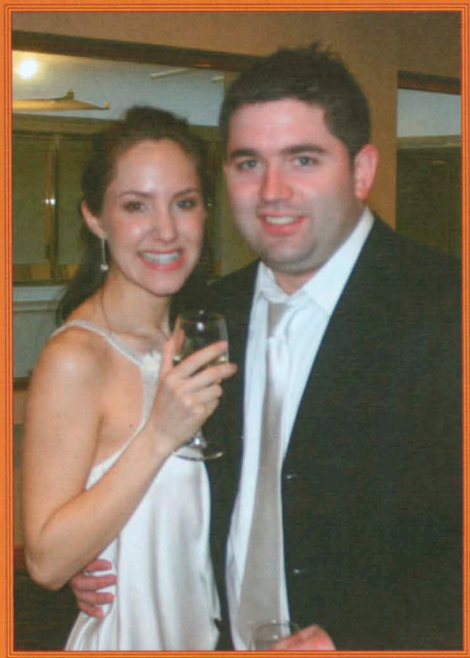

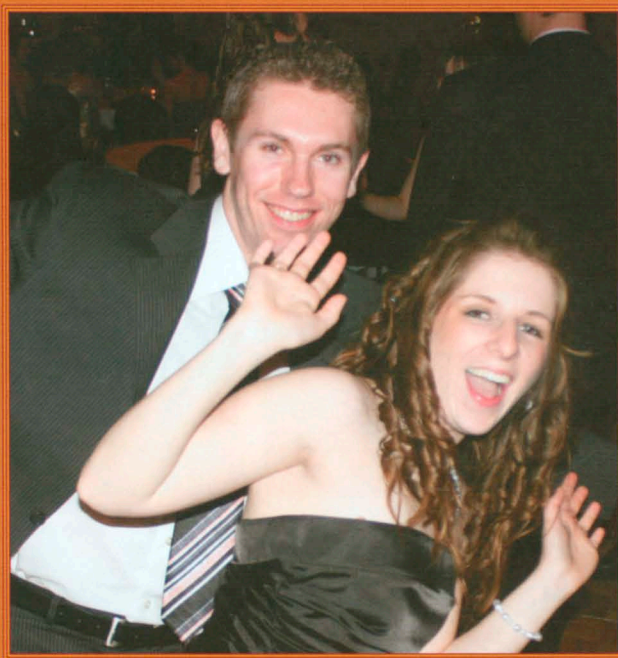

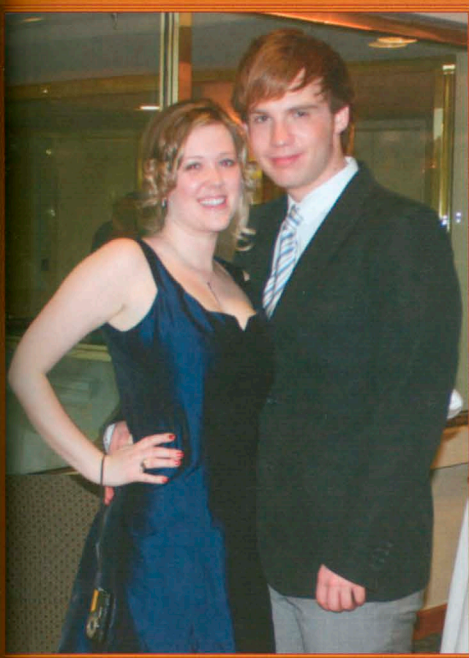

April 5, 2008

Dear Diary,

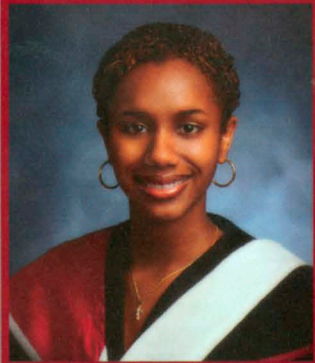

The Maroon & White Ball was held at the Marriot tonight. The evening began with a reception at 6pm, and our dinner was served at 7pm. At 9pm, the music began, and there was dancing for all. One million memories, all in one night.

Yours Truly,

▲ IT TAKES A WORLD. UNICEF, the international children's agency, announced that global childhood deaths hit a record low in 2006. Though 9.7 million children died before their fifth birthday, that statistic is down from nearly 13 million in 1990. While the worst rates came from nations plagued by war and violence, some Third World nations have used simple affordable measures to great success. The African country of Mozambique used inexpensive health tips on hydration and nutrition combined with mosquito nets that prevent malaria to drop its child mortality rate by 41 per cent. ▶ TURNING A CORNER? After four years of continuous bad news, life in Iraq started to get better last year following the deployment of an additional 30,000 U.S. troops. That effort, combined with deals that turned disaffected former insurgents into paid security forces, resulted in a plunge in the number of bombings and killings. While analysts debate whether Iraqi politicians can maintain the fragile new reality, particularly when the U.S. starts reducing its forces, civilians seized the drop in violence as an opportunity to start rebuilding their shattered country.

▲ BRAVERY IN BURMA. Dressed in vivid orange and red robes, thousands of Buddhist monks marched barefoot through the streets of Rangoon last September. They were joined by thousands of civilians, shouting "Democracy!" Burma has been ruled by a harsh military regime since 1962, which the massive street protests could not defeat. Within days, soldiers and police responded with a brutal crackdown. The government shut off all access to the outside world, including Internet service, and thus the fate of the protestors may never be known. (AP)

◀ THE DYNAMIC DUO. The passionate crowds of U.S. Democratic party members flocking to presidential candidates' rallies and debates know they are witnessing history in the making. At the party's convention in August, they will nominate either the first black, Barack Obama, or the first woman, Hillary Rodham Clinton to be their presidential hope on the November election ballot.

▲ MUSEUM LOOT. When Italy asked the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City to return a number of objects it claims were illegally lifted from ancient sites, it opened a huge debate in museums around the world: who really owns pieces looted in the past? The debate centred on one object in particular: the Euphronios krater, a Greek vase from the 6th century B.C., that was sold to the Met for $1 million in 1972. Italy wanted it returned, and after 30 years of wrangling, a deal was reached. In a splashy homecoming celebration, the vase went on display in Rome in January. (Bebeto Matthews/AP)

▲ CAMPUS HERO AMID THE HORROR. On the morning of the Virginia Tech massacre, engineering professor and Holocaust survivor Liviu Librescu, 76, was presenting a slideshow to his class. When shots were heard in the corridor, Librescu pressed himself against the classroom door, blocking the gunman long enough for many of his students to jump to safety through second-floor windows. Librescu was killed that day by Cho Sueng-Hui, who shot 31 other students and professors and then himself in the worst school shooting in U.S. history. Librescu's students remember him as a hero.

◀ CHINA SYNDROME. From clothing and electronics to foodstuffs and toys, China is now the world's source for cheap imports. But in recent months, reports of contaminated products point to the downside of our growing dependence on Chinese suppliers. First there was the dog and cat food that killed family pets, next came toothpaste containing anti-freeze. And then came word that thousands of toys sold across North America were coated in lead-based paint. But China's most dangerous export could be its pollution. Can we tie our desire for cheap goods to demands for environmentally responsible factories? The planet's future may hang in the balance.

◀ AN OFFICER AND A PRINCE. It was Prince Harry's grandma, Queen Elizabeth II, who told the 23-year-old army officer that he was off for a tour of duty in the dangerous southern Afghanistan. While Harry, his recognizable red hair safely obscured by a helmet, called in air strikes and went on foot patrols, dozens of media outlets kept his location a secret for 10 weeks. This protected the self-described "bullet magnet" and his fellow soldiers from Taliban attacks. But after a U.S. website broke the news, Harry was forced to return home. He was met by his dad, Prince Charles and his elder brother William, who, because he's a future king of England, will never get to see action. (REX FEATURES)

▲ HOPING AND PRAYING. Pictures of Madeleine McCann's chubby face, big round eyes and blond hair are plastered throughout Europe. The British toddler went missing from a Portuguese holiday resort just before her fourth birthday last May. When a huge hunt by police and volunteers combined with massive media coverage failed to turn up any clues, her parents launched a website looking for information. Weeks after Madeleine vanished, Quebec was stunned when 10-year-old Cédrika Provencher disappeared in Trois-Rivières while on a bike ride. Missing posters plastered store windows and a massive volunteer effort was organized. Though police continue to investigate, the girls are still missing. (Alastair Grant/AP)

◀ PAKISTAN UNDER PRESSURE. Reeling from crisis to crisis, Pakistan teetered on the brink of chaos. While al-Qaeda and other terrorists encroached from Afghanistan next door, homegrown militant Islamists at mosques in the capital, Islamabad, fought gun battles with security forces. Meanwhile former political leaders lined up to challenge President Pervez Musharraf, a general who had seized power in a 1999 coup. The main challenger was former prime minister Benazir Bhutto, whose triumphant homecoming after eight years in exile was cut short when she was assassinated in late December during the national election campaign. In February, after voters rejected Musharraf, the big question remained whether anyone could lead Pakistan into calmer waters.

▲ THE DOLLAR PUMPS IRON. On Sept. 20, 2007 the loonie did something no one had seen for 31 years when it became worth more than the U.S. dollar. The loonie briefly soared above US$1.10 before settling back to the US$1 range. While northern manufacturers fretted that the high dollar was hurting their exports, delighted Canadian consumers flocked to American malls and Internet shopping sites to take advantage of the exchange rate. (KRT)

▲ ANGEL WISH. When Maddie Babineau, dying of bone cancer, was offered anything she wanted by the Children's Wish Foundation, the 15-year-old Hamilton, Ont., teen passed on a Disney cruise or a shopping spree and instead asked for a new school in the poor Kenyan village of Enelera. After the foundation granted her request, Babineau started raising the $10,000 needed to build a well near the school, so kids could attend classes rather than spending hours hauling water for their families. Maddie Babineau died last May, but her mom and brother travelled to Kenya to see the school and the completed well. Her picture hangs in the Grade 7 classroom.

▲ THE HONOUR GUARD. For those concerned that the public, deeply divided over Canada's combat role in Afghanistan, wouldn't support its soldiers, the tributes on a stretch of highway in Ontario proved otherwise. Each time one of our war dead returned to CFB Trenton, thousands of Canadians lined Highway 401 to pay respects to the fallen as the cortège passed by. The spontaneous nature of the vigils led the province to rename that section of Highway 401 the Highway of Heroes. (Frank Gunn/CP)

▼ TUSSELE FOR THE TUNDRA. As ancient Arctic ice melts faster and faster—the Northwest Passage was fully open last summer—the international fight over who will control the potentially lucrative shipping lanes and natural resources of the Far North is intensifying. As well as bulking up its military forces in the area, Russia planted a flag on the seabed below the North Pole while the United States aggressively pushed its idea that the passage is an international waterway and not, as Canada believes, a domestic route. In response, Ottawa beefed up Canuck claims, announcing plans to build up to eight new icebreakers along with a new Far North military base and a deep-water port on Baffin Island. No word yet on how the true kings of the Arctic, the polar bears, will deal with the newcomers. (Vladimir Chistyakov/AP)

▲ RED SERGE TROUBLES. For the RCMP, the last few years have seen a litany of problems. In December 2006 commissioner Giuliano Zaccardelli resigned after giving incorrect testimony to politicians. Then an inquiry, looking into allegations senior officials had covered up problems in RCMP pension and insurance fund, sharply criticized the force's management. Then the focus shifted to policing policies themselves. First to be scrutinized was the habit of solitary policing in isolated settlements after two young officers were killed while responding to calls without back up. Then when a Polish immigrant died after being tasered and held down by RCMP officers at the Vancouver airport, the force faced detailed queries about its use of force. As their woes mount, it's no surprise that the RCMP faces a shortage of new recruits. (Don Denton/CP)

▲ WHEN THE GOING GETS COLD... "Winterpeg" celebrated its cold-weather reputation by setting a new world record. Manitoba's capital city capitalized on its frigid weather when it groomed an 8.5-km stretch of ice along both the Assiniboine and Red rivers to snatch the title of the world's longest skating rink from Ottawa's 7.8-km Rideau Canal. (Ken Gigliotti/Winnipeg Free Press/CP)

▲ A LOBBYIST AND A PM. As the economy slowed and the debate over the military's role in Afghanistan heated up during the winter, the biggest draw on Parliament Hill wasn't debates in the House of Commons but rather a committee hearing into the relationship between former PM Brian Mulroney and lobbyist Karlheinz Schreiber. The so-called Airbus Affair, which started two decades ago over allegations of kickbacks paid when Air Canada bought new Airbus planes, exploded back to life when PM Stephen Harper announced a public inquiry into the affair, hoping to shed light on the reported $300,000 paid by Schreiber to Mulroney. Fascinated citizens watched as politicians, lobbyists and officials gave enough contradictory testimony to the committee to make a Law & Order plot look straightforward in comparison. (Fred Chartrand/CP)

▲ CRIME ISN'T PAYING. The last time the crime rate was this low, Pierre Trudeau was prime minister. Statistics Canada reported that the 2006 crime rate dropped three per cent, on top of a five per cent decline in 2005. Indeed, virtually all crimes had been trending downward in the past decade: breaking and entering rate was 43 per cent lower than it was in 1996, while murder was down 14 per cent. And, according to the experts, the decline was a coast-to-coast phenomenon. (Jonathan Hayward/CP)

▶ CAR SEAT MIRACLE. It was Canadian Forces rescuers who first realized three-year-old Kate Williams had survived the October crash of her grandfather's Cessna plane near Golden, B.C. The toddler had been hanging upside down by the straps of her car seat for more than five hours until the men reached the wreckage in the fading daylight and saved Kate. Though her pilot-grandfather, credited with saving her life by strapping her so carefully into the car seat, died in the crash, "Super Kate" had only minor cuts and bruises. ◀ ▼ IDOLS NOT IDLE. Former American Idol finalists Chris Daughtry (below) and Carrie Underwood (left) continue to ride the wave, with top-selling albums and singles. Underwood, named the No. 1 country artist for 2007 by Billboard magazine, was also honoured at the Grammy Awards in February, winning the best female country vocal performance award for her song Before He Cheats.

(Francis Speckert/Landov/MCT)

▶ AMY SINGS THE BLUES. With her heavy, winged eyeliner and her mile-high beehive hairdo, bluesy British singer Amy Winehouse has a retro look that matches her Motown musical style. She growls and purrs and swaggers through the numbers on her hit CD Back to Black, for which she won five Grammy Awards.

(Goff/INFphoto.com)

▲ THEY ROCK THE HOUSE. With their old-time rock 'n' roll style and its hard-driving beat, raucous choruses, dopey lyrics and pure enthusiasm, the Foo Fighters have numerous hummable hits. Their sixth studio album, Echoes, Silence, Patience & Grace earned two Grammy Awards, for best rock album and best hard rock performance for the hit song The Pretender.

▶ HIT MEN.

Gifted songwriters and legendary music producers Timbaland (far right) and Nate "Danja" Hills have helped create many of the career-defining songs of such artists as Justin Timberlake (right), Nelly Furtado, Ludacris, Jay-Z and Britney Spears. Most recently Madonna turned to Timbaland, Danja and Timberlake for help on a number of tracks for her new album, Hard Candy. (Mark J. Terrill/AP)

▲ LET'S DO A RAIN DANCE. Rihanna, the green-eyed pop songstress from Barbados, had perhaps the catchiest hit of the year with Umbrella. Close your eyes and you can hear the robotic chant "ella, ella, ella, ay, ay, ay." Will weather protection ever be the same?

(Lionel Hahn-Abaca Press/MCT)

► A MIXED YEAR FOR

KANYE. The rapper hitmaker (pictured right, with fiancée Alexis Phifer) had a bittersweet year. Releasing his third album, Graduation, on the same day—Sept. 11, 2007—as 50 Cent, Kanye West eclipsed his rival in sales, and scooped up four awards at the Grammys. But his trademark brash bravado took a serious blow with the death of his mom in November, bringing a new poignancy to his hit singles Stronger and Hey Mama.

▼ POP MUSIC'S CROONER.

Michael Bublé has a great voice and a smooth, easy style. The 32-year-old Canadian can sing like Frank Sinatra without making it feel dated. His big-band, breezy, big-voice sound is in full form on the love song Everything from his Call Me Irresponsible CD. It's music to swoon over.

(Steve Russell/The Canadian Press/ Toronto Star)

► COUNT US IN.

Canadian indie pop darling Leslie Feist was nominated for four Grammy Awards, including best new artist and best female pop vocal, for her breakthrough single 1234. The adorable hit was featured on a commercial for Apple's iPod Nano and soon exploded onto iTunes's Top Songs chart. Feist performed the hit song onstage at the Grammys, but alas, at the end of the night she'd been shut out of the hardware. (Richard Drew/AP)

► FERGIE RULES. Named as a "breakthrough artist" of 2007 by Entertainment Weekly, Fergie (a.k.a. Stacy Ferguson) earned the honour with her first solo album, appropriately named The Dutchess. The CD had three No. 1 singles last year, including Big Girls Don't Cry, which took the No. 4 position on Billboard's Hot 100 year-end chart.

(Jeff Zvelansky/Landov/MCT)

▼ RADIOHEAD'S BOLD MOVE. When Radiohead decided to self-release a new album online and let fans set their own price for it, the record industry was shocked, fans cheered and fellow artists looked on with interest at the experiment. In Rainbows became a hot commodity without ever passing through a retail store. Actually, the band was just boldly acknowledging a growing trend. In 2007, Apple iTunes digital media store outsold both Best Buy and Target to become the second-largest U.S. music seller, behind Wal-Mart. Legal downloads now account for 10 per cent of the music market. Meanwhile, CD sales have slumped as a result.

Lifestyle

► MAD ABOUT PLAID. Remarkably, it isn't just golfers sporting this fashion trend. Plaid shorts are everywhere, often topped by layered polo shirts in vivid colours. As guys throw off their drab duds, girls: don't forget your shades. (Chris Walker/MCT)

◀ CHOPPED AND CROPPED. After tending their long tresses for years, some fashion-forward trendsetters have made a clean break and opted for blunt bob cuts or bangs. The shorter dos showed more attitude, especially the asymmetrical cuts worn by Rihanna (left) and Spice Girl Victoria Beckham.

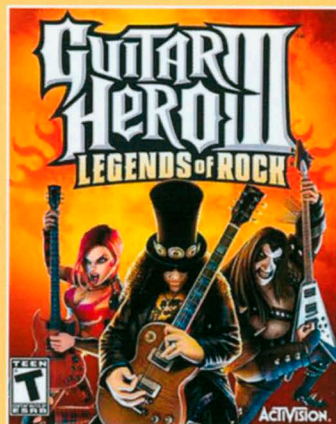

(Lionel Hahn/Abaca Press/MCT)

► Wii LIKE IT. With its innovative, motion-sensitive controller, Nintendo's Wii video system dominates the market, turning couch potatoes into active participants. Priced below the competition, the Wii system flew off store shelves, outselling the Xbox in 2007 and forcing many buyers to purchase units on eBay at premium prices.

(Itsu Inouye/AP)

▼ HEY, BABY DOLL. Ballet flats can turn the sassiest 16-year-old into a sweet angel. Add empire waists, puff sleeves and ruffles, and you've nailed the hottest fashion look of the year with style and comfort.

(J.Crew/MCT)

◀ GAMERS ROCK. The Nickelback song Rockstar says it best: "we all just wanna be big rockstars." And to help wannabes live that dream, video games such as Rock Band and Guitar Hero III: Legends of Rock let us lay down awesome tunes without actually having to learn to play an instrument. The co-operative spirit of Rock Band's multi-player mode makes it a huge hit at parties. But for hardcore gamers craving action, nothing beats Halo 3, the combat simulator that stocks an arsenal of weapons to wage complex battles amid gorgeous graphics. Pure gaming bliss. (MCT)

◀ IT'S IN THE BAG. Eco-friendly became a fashion statement when British handbag designer Anya Hindmarch introduced her unbleached cotton tote, stamped with "I am not a plastic bag." While Ireland, Thailand, China, South Africa, and a number of states in India have curbed the use of plastic bags by imposing extra taxes or outright bans, North America lags far behind. But shoppers don't need legislation to go green. They can just BYOB (bring your own bag). (Adrian Brooks/REX FEATURES)

◀ THINK GLOBALLY, EAT LOCALLY. When the average North American sits down to eat, many ingredients have travelled at least 2,400 km to reach the dinner plate. But a new movement is afoot: the 100-mile diet. The idea is that you eat food from within a two-hour drive of your home. It means visiting local farmers' markets, learning to prepare meals from scratch, and forgoing out-of-season produce, as much as possible. It also means fresher, better-tasting food with fewer additives, less sugar and less fuel used for shipping. And it sparked a recent entry in the New Oxford American Dictionary: "locavore," meaning one who eats locally. (Tony Berardi/MCT)

▲ ONE BRIGHT IDEA. A simple flick of a switch can make a huge difference, at least when it comes to saving energy. Compact fluorescent light bulbs use 75 per cent less energy than standard incandescents and last 10 times longer. In Canada, a group called Project Porchlight, has already convinced more than a million households to install at least one CFL bulb. If every household in the country made the switch, we would cut greenhouse gas equivalent to the emissions from 66,000 cars. (Philadelphia Inquirer/MCT)

▲ IN CYBERSPACE, EVERYONE CAN HEAR YOU. When a Washington, D.C.-area student phoned a school official's home to ask why he hadn't closed schools after a recent snowfall, the response set off an online storm. Student Devraj "Dave" Kori left his name and number, so the official's wife returned the call, but she apparently wasn't pleased. "How dare you call us at home!" she snapped in her message. She also used the phrase "snotty-nosed little brats," and said "Get over it kid, and go to school." Kori taped the voice-mail reply and posted an audio link to his Facebook page. The message was also uploaded to YouTube. Within days it had drawn more than 20,000 hits: a clear case of technology biting back.

▶ ALL EYES ON THE IPHONE. This sleek gadget can surf the Net, download music wirelessly, read a digital newspaper, take snapshots, resize photos, send text messages and, oh yeah, even make phone calls. Last June, when the iPhone went on sale in the United States, long lines formed outside Apple stores despite the $499 price tag. And when the price dropped by $200 in September, the gizmo became the "It Gift" for holiday shoppers south of the border. No word yet on when the most talked-about cell phone in history will be available in Canada.

Entertainment

▲ QBs LOVE BLONDS. The path of true love is not always smooth, especially when hunky quarterbacks hook up with tall blond beauties. First fans accused singer/celebrity Jessica Simpson of jinxing the Dallas Cowboys every time she watched quarterback/boyfriend Tony Romo play. Never mind that she wasn't in the stadium to watch Romo and the Cowboys lose their last game of the season. Then, when the undefeated New England Patriots lost the Super Bowl, "blond curse" suspicions soon focused on QB Tom Brady's Brazilian supermodel girlfriend Gisele Bündchen (above with Brady), who'd watched from a skybox. But the handsome couple shrugged off the criticism and kept dating. (Thornton/Green/INPhoto.com Ref.: infusny-06/31/CP Photos)

► LIFE IMITATING ART.

They meet on the set of High School Musical and their on-set chemistry has spilled over into real life. Zac Efron, 20, and Vanessa Hudgens, 19, are the cutest young couple in Hollywood. The two were on the cover of virtually every entertainment magazine as they discovered that singing and dancing on the small screen is a lot easier than dating in the full glare of the cameras.

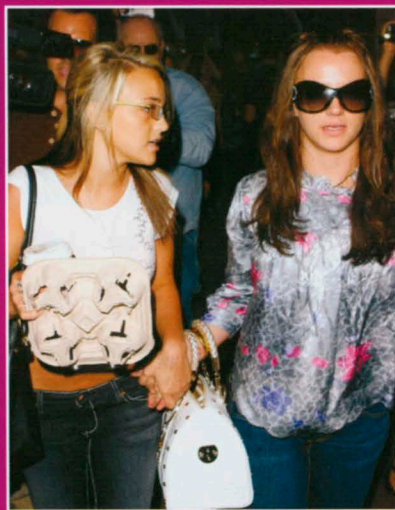

(Bob D'Amico/Disney Channel/MCT)

► MUG SHOTS 'R US. The trio of actress Lindsay Lohan and celebs Paris Hilton (right) and Nicole Richie found their hard-partying ways interrupted by visits to police stations or jail. After months in rehab, Lohan found that her promising movie career had stalled, at least temporarily. While Paris Hilton quickly returned to her role as the princess of the paparazzi after serving 22 days in jail, it was Hilton's Simple Life co-star Nicole Ritchie who snagged the "most improved" prize. She quietly settled down with her partner, musician Joel Madden. In January, she gave birth to a girl named Harlow, whom Hilton has already promised to spoil. (Lionel Hahn/Abaca Press/MCT)

▲ BYE-BYE HOGWARTS. Last July was a magical month for Muggles. In a span of 10 days, millions of non-wizarding folk watched the fifth movie in the Harry Potter series and then lined up in stores around the world to buy the seventh and final book in J.K. Rowling's epic tale, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows. In the first day on sale, a staggering 12 million copies flew off shelves in the United States, Britain and Canada. (Wong Maye-E/AP)

◀ OOPS THEY DID IT AGAIN. Shaving her head, performing a lackadaisical dance on MTV, losing custody of her two young sons, checking into a psychiatric ward by ambulance—it seemed that every second of singer Britney Spears' life was recorded by the media. Then in December, attention swivelled to her squeaky-clean sister, 16-year-old Jamie Lynn (far left), the star of the immensely popular Zoey 101, who announced she was pregnant. Needless to say, their mother's book of parenting advice has been put on hold indefinitely.

▲ CAUGHT IN THE WEB. Celebrities and ordinary people learned the power of the Internet as gossip sites such as PerezHilton.com and TMZ.com instantly spread "news" and videos around the world with the click of a button. Secrets, rumours, snarky rants—nothing was too trivial. It was all useless information that we find strangely compelling. But YouTube.com was still the go-to site for the best of what's cool on this planet, as viewers trolled through everything from mash-up videos to university lectures and even police pleas to locate wanted criminals.

◀ PICKETS STOP PLOTS. When the Writers Guild of America went out on strike on Nov. 5, few thought the dispute, centred over payments for Internet viewings, would last. As TV shows ran out of new episodes and talk show hosts were forced to ad lib, strange phenomena were reported: networks observed skyrocketing ratings for political debates while some parents discovered their kids' school marks were improving. But all those oddities were forgotten once a deal was reached in February and people realized the Oscars would go on as planned. (Goff/INFphoto.com)

▶ HANNAH MONTANA RIDES THE WAVE. The tour name "Best of Both Worlds" fits the life of actress/singer Miley Cyrus to perfection. The 15-year-old actress stars in Hannah Montana playing a girl living a dual role: ordinary student Miley Stewart by day and pop star Hannah Montana at night. When not filming the series, Cyrus herself has been on a sold-out concert tour throughout North America. Oh, and a 3-D movie of her concert took in $31 million on its first weekend.

◀ LOST IN RIDDLES. What hasn't Ben done? Why can't outsiders find the island? Did Kate and Jack really make it back to Los Angeles? Millions of Lost viewers, hooked on the mystery of doomed Oceanic flight 815, spend hours trying to solve puzzles contained in the show, which follows survivors (including bad boy Sawyer, left) of a plane disaster trapped on a weird uncharted island. Since the creators signed a deal to wrap up the show in 2010, fans know there will be a proper conclusion to the series, though maybe not answers to every question.

▶ CUBICLE LIFE 101. Michael Scott is the egotistic and socially awkward regional manager for the Dunder Mifflin Paper Co. who struggles to keep himself as the centre of attention among the misfits in The Office. The show's mock-documentary style reveals the sad truth about life at work—incompetent and bullying people like Scott (brilliantly played by comedian Steve Carell) do rise to power, some employees fall in love (like Jim and Pam, above) some turn into pathetic suck ups, while others rebel in spectacular fashion. The Office is a grimly hilarious look at how many people will spend four decades of their lives. ▶ CAUTION: IT'S INFECTIOUS. In real life, Patrick Dempsey is dad to three young children but for fans of Grey's Anatomy, he's simply McDreamy. The handsome surgeon's angst-filled relationship with Meredith Grey is the core of the blockbuster medical drama, but recently the off-screen adventures of the show's actors vied for interest. Isaiah Washington (Preston Burke) was fired after making derogatory comments about gay co-star T.R. Knight (George). Then actress Katherine Heigl (Izzy) was crowned queen of the box office for her hit film Knocked Up. By winter, McDreamy grabbed the crown for himself when he struck movie gold with Enchanted. ▶ THEY'RE SOARING... Given the runaway success of High School Musical a sequel to the TV movie was inevitable and sure enough, last summer, the original cast, including hunky Zac Efron and sweetie-pie Vanessa Hudgens, returned with more song-and-dance productions. H.S.M. 2 became the highest rated basic-cable broadcast in U.S. history. Now the focus is turning to the third installment of H.S.M., due to hit theatres this fall.

◀ ▶ ▶ TRIPLE PLAY. Last summer was the season of the action-adventure three-peat as the third instalments of Shrek, Spider-Man and Pirates of the Caribbean kept fans enthralled with their dazzling special effects. Though the three weren't darlings of the critics, fans flocked to see how Jack Sparrow (Johnny Depp in Pirates) defeated Davy Jones, how Peter Parker (Spider-Man's Tobey Maguire) dealt with the dark side, and how Shrek (Mike Myers) found a new king and fathered, wait for it, triplets

▼ THE OSCAR SLAYER. Before No Country for Old Men hit the big screen and got the Best Picture Oscar, sexy Spaniard Javier Bardem was known more for his relationship with Penélope Cruz, than his acting skills. But his portrayal of a ruthless hit man with a caveman haircut got him kudos from the critics and earned him a fancy gold statue for Best Supporting Actor.

► SEXY, STRONG AND SUCCESSFUL. Jason Bourne is a hero for modern times—conflicted yet deadly, kind yet ruthless, and efficient yet romantic. In his third film incarnation, The Bourne Ultimatum, actor Matt Damon proved that allowing viewers a peak inside Bourne's humanity didn't destroy him as an action figure and box-office gold. For Damon, the huge summer flick was the start of a few good months as his beloved Boston Red Sox captured the World Series while he energetically promoted his Third World charities. The happily-married-with-children star even landed People magazine's Sexiest Man Alive award.

▲ STIRRING THE POT. Pixar, the makers of Toy Story and The Incredibles, wowed critics and fans with another computer-animated masterpiece. Ratatouille focused on a French rat who abandons his garbage traditions for gastronomic fame in a Paris restaurant kitchen. What follows is culinary bliss mixed with cinematic bravado tossed liberally with humour.

▲ REWRITING HISTORY. When the original Nicolas Cage history thriller earned nearly $350 million around the world, a sequel was inevitable. This time the plot of National Treasure: Book of Secrets centred on Ben Gates' efforts to prove his great-great grandfather wasn't the mastermind of the Abraham Lincoln assassination plot. In the first movie, Gates stole the Declaration of Independence, so this time he ups the ante by kidnapping the President. The mixture of history and action worked once again, as the sequel topped the Christmas box office.

► A STAR IS BORN. Before Juno, most moviegoers only had a vague recollection that Ellen Page had played Kitty Pryde in the third X-Men film. But after Juno, a small witty independent film about a teen dealing with pregnancy, adoption and high school, everyone knew the 21-year-old Canadian actress. It seemed that she was on every magazine cover while directors scrambled to cast her in their movies. And through it all the petite actress dressed like the girl next door, smiled politely for the cameras and looked as though she wasn't letting the fuss get to her. (CP/Picture Perfect)

▲ HEROIC HUNKS OF METAL. The Transformers plot might have left all but the most stalwart fans bewildered, but the fight sequences between the two races of alien robots, the good Autobots and the villainous Decepticons, were the special-effects highlight of last summer. No wonder a sequel is planned for 2009.

◀ THE HEROES OF HARRY POTTER. For the actors at the heart of the Harry Potter series, the fifth movie, The Order of the Phoenix, was the film when they became full-blown teen pin ups. Producers have been shooting the series as fast as possible to keep a now-muscular Daniel Radcliffe (Harry, far left) and his fellow thespians close to their characters' ages, so stay tuned: film six is set for a November release.

▲ FOUR IN A ROW. Team Canada won its fourth consecutive gold medal at the world junior tournament in the Czech Republic in January. But the World Under-20 Championship was not handed to the Canadians. The final game against Sweden was tied 2-2 at the end of three periods. At three minutes and 36 seconds into overtime, Matt Halischuk (upper left) scored the most important goal of his young career and kept the team's winning streak alive.

► SPEED QUEENS. Canadian women skiers have been in contention all season, and give every indication they'll be ready for prime time at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics. Kelly VanderBeek (left), Britt Janyk (centre), and Emily Brydon should be even more energized when they ski before the home crowd at Whistler's Olympic venues. (Marco Trovati/AP)

▼ GIRL POWER AT THE RACETRACK. Jockey Emma-Jayne Wilson rode into horse-racing's history books when she became the first woman to win the prestigious Queen's Plate. Her mount, three-year-old Mike Fox, was considered a 15-to-1 long shot, but in the final stretch he flew by the two front-runners to win by half a length in a thrilling victory. (Frank Gunn/CP)

► THE CROSBY SHOW. Sidney Crosby was the NHL's best player last season, even though he hadn't yet celebrated his 20th birthday. He won the scoring race with 120 points, plus the MVP trophy and the Lou Marsh Trophy, awarded by a panel of journalists to Canada's top athlete. Even after being sidelined for six weeks this winter with a badly sprained ankle, No. 87 still ranked in the top 25 for points. When Crosby plays, the NHL arenas are filled to capacity and TV ratings soar, so needless to say, his Pittsburgh Penguins were glad to have their captain back on the ice in March. ▲ QUEEN OF THE COURTS. Smaller than many towering opponents on the tennis circuit, Belgium's Justine Henin still delivers a serve topping 200 km/h. It is her strength, finesse and a deadly accurate single-handed backhand that made her the No. 1 tennis player. She's won more than US$19 million in prizes, and last year she won both the French and U.S. Opens without losing a set. Tennis legend John McEnroe calls her game "Federertennis," a reference to the No. 1 male player Roger Federer. Both players so dominated tennis that they won the Laureus awards as the top male and female athletes of the world.

▲ ROUGH RIDE FOR BLUE BOMBERS. Saskatchewan's James Johnson set a Grey Cup record when he intercepted three passes, and returned one for a touchdown, as the Roughriders won the CFL championship in Toronto. With just over a minute left in the game, Johnson made his last interception, defeating Winnipeg 23-19. The Riders' green wave of fans partied it up all week, including head coach Kent Austin (above) who 18 years earlier, had quarterbacked the team to its last victory in the 1989 Grey Cup. ◀ GOLF'S GREATEST. Mexican golf sensation Lorena Ochoa finished 2007 with eight victories and more than $4 million in winnings. Ochoa, who was named LPGA player of the year for the second season in a row, smashed the LPGA Tour winnings record of $2.86 million, set in 2002 by Annika Sorenstam. Meanwhile, Tiger Woods started his 2008 season with two wins, the second at the Accenture Match Play Championship in Arizona, the tournament that snapped his win streak last year. The win added up to 63 career tour victories for Woods. (Doug Duran/Contra Costa Times/MCT)

▶ A TARNISHED RECORD. For baseball fans, statistics are pieces of gold to be collected, molded and endlessly analyzed. But when Barry Bonds closed in on the all-time home-run record held by Hank Aaron, enthusiasm was muted to the extreme, because the slugger was under investigation for illegal steroid use. Baseball commish Bud Selig was absent when Bonds smashed his 756th home run on Aug. 7, 2007 and many fans labelled the Bond record tainted. Weeks later, the San Francisco Giants cut Bonds loose and in November he was indicted for lying under oath about his alleged use of steroids.

▶ SHATTERING PERFECTION. Fans of the New England Patriots were supremely confident heading into the Super Bowl in Phoenix, Ariz. The Patriots had won the Super Bowl three times since 2001, had finished the season with a perfect undefeated record of 18-0, and were facing an opposing wildcard team. But all that certainty collided with reality during a thrilling Super Bowl, as the New York Giants nipped past the Patriots in the closing seconds of the game with a spectacular throw by QB Eli Manning (far right) to receiver David Tyree. No wonder Manning was named MVP.

▶ BAD NEWS FOR BASEBALL. For 20 months, former U.S. senator George Mitchell worked on his independent investigation into illegal performance-enhancing drug use in baseball. When the report was released in December, he named 89 former and current players alleged to have taken drugs. On that list was pitcher Roger Clemens (right) and his good friend and former teammate Andy Pettitte. While Pettitte admitted the charges were true, Clemens, a seven-time Cy Young Award winner, vigorously denied the charges, and even marched up to Capitol Hill to say so in sworn testimony.

▼ FANCY FOOTWORK. The FIFA Under-20 2007 World Cup set attendance records at soccer fields across Canada, as 24 nations (including Mexico and Congo, below) competed in 52 games that culminated in Toronto last July. Argentina beat the Czech Republic 2-1 in the final that went 60 minutes before any goal was scored. The Czechs took the lead, but the Argentines charged up and then pulling ahead with only four minutes left in regulation time. Touted as the favourite to win at the start of the tournament, Argentina successfully defended its world title with style and precision.

▶ MANITOBA WOMEN ROCK. Jennifer Jones and her Manitoba rink won their second Scotties Tournament of Hearts in four years with a nail-biter of a finish. The team stole a single point in the final end for a 6-4 win over Shannon Kleibrink of Alberta. The win earned the Manitoba team a spot in next year's Olympic curling trials, plus $144,000 in funding from Sport Canada over the next two years. (Paul Chiasson/CP)

◀ SPACE RACE.

British tycoon Richard Branson already owns an airline, a mobile phone company and a music store chain, but his latest venture is truly out of this world. Virgin Galactic is the planet's first commercial space tourism company. In January, Branson unveiled a model of the spaceship that could take paying passengers into space as soon as next year. More than 200 tickets have already been sold at $200,000 each for a two-hour flight.

▲ FORECAST: CHANGEABLE. From raging wildfires in tinder-dry California and Greece, to heavy rains that submerged parts of Bangladesh, England, India and the U.S. Midwest, weird weather stalks the planet. Predicting Mother Nature's path has never been easy, but many scientists suspect that as global temperatures increase, more destructive weather is headed our way.

◀ THE ENVIRONMENT TAKES CENTRE STAGE.

Former U.S. vice president Al Gore (far left) made headlines throughout 2007 as he alerted the world to global warming. First his documentary An Inconvenient Truth won an Oscar. Then he promoted the Live Earth concerts that drew 27 million viewers around the world. And last fall he was summoned to Sweden to receive a Nobel Peace Prize. All of Gore's work may have finally convinced the rest of us that the environment needs our full attention. It's time businesses and governments began looking for green solutions. (Heiko Junge/Scanpix/CP)

◀ WATER WORRIES.

They're bright and colourful and seen everywhere from campsites to campuses, to downtown offices. But are polycarbonate Nalgene water bottles safe? The plastic bottles contain bisphenol A, which has been linked to illnesses connected with hormone disruption. The chemical is now under review by Health Canada, and south of the border, by the U.S. National Institutes of Health. But in the meantime, several retailers have pulled the bottles from their shelves. (Bill Hogan/Chicago Tribune/MCT)

◀ HELPING HAND. In an emergency the CPRGlove could save lives. Using sensors and an LCD screen, this neoprene device guides you through the steps of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR), monitoring how hard and fast you're pumping and providing feedback to improve your technique. Made by two students at McMaster University, in Hamilton, Ont., the gadget was named one of Popular Science magazine's Top 10 inventions of 2007. (Corey Centen)

▶ SIZZLING SKATES. Wayne Gretzky was so impressed when he tested Thermablades, that he invested in the company. The battery-powered hockey skate blades contain microprocessors to maintain a temperature of 5°C. The warm blade creates a tiny layer of water on the ice that inventor Tory Weber says will reduce friction and help skaters move faster. It will "revolutionize the game of hockey," the Great One claims. Of course, that's assuming players are willing to pay $399 for the heated blades, skates not included. (Frank Gunn/CP)
