My dear Janie,

I can't thank you enough for the sweet Bertheloy present. It was so good of you to think of me. That was a very nice little birthday card you sent me.

As the little card says. "Wish that I were there!" I certainly wish the same. It would be marvellous. It doesn't seem quite fair!

I'm being so far away from such a sweet little girl. However Janie I think it is very kind of you to spoil me like this, and again I say I can't thank you enough for all your kindness.

Now the days in this country are growing colder. At night at sea its rough, and wet. I come back to the base wet through. How I hate the cold winter days in this country. I can never get warm. All their buildings are colder inside than out.

The only nice warm little spot in or aboard
my Torpedo Boat is my Wardroom. I have a small heater going. The Wardroom is like a doll house, but very comfortable.

Bunny is in this country - I just received a letter from him, saying lets get together and paint London Red, which would be a good idea, but I am always broke.

Give my very best to your father & mother.

Well little Janie, I must close. I love
you and wish you were here with me.

Keep of Love and a nice big kisses &
a lot of little kisses from your affectionate

Tony.
