Frosh Week Keeps Going & Going & Going

by Jennifer Kelly & Tammy Sudds

W-E-L-C-O-M-E SMU students. The summer may be over but the fun is just about to begin. Frosh Week '98 promises to be the best yet. So make sure you are first in line to pick up your frosh pack. All the fun begins Sunday for those students moving into residence. By Sunday night everyone should be settled in their new rooms unless of course you are the lucky lads and lasses still waiting for an elevator to the 22nd floor. On Monday Hypnotist Michael Anthony will have the audience entertained by those brave souls on stage doing what they never dreamed possible. After working up an appetite make sure you head down to the President's Dinner because it will be the best meal you'll eat all year. Two words

FREE FOOD!
Rise and shine folks! Tuesday BT will be calling you to the turf, this could be your 15 minutes of fame. We'll finish off the day with Celtic night in the Tower. Come experience live traditional Celtic music. This evening promises to be exciting and entertaining featuring Barnacle, Signal Hill, and Kilt. Ladies remember REAL MEN don't wear anything under their kilts!! Wednesday the school bell will be ringing and classes will begin. Don't let that dampen your day, starting at 7:00pm it's Sex with Sue Johanson. Start gathering your questions now, she'll answer anything, leaving nothing to the imagination. Thursday night let Your Back Bone Slide with music from Maestro Fresh Wes. For an unforgettable experience come and join us at the Tower for a little Joy and Pain with Rob Base and The Wild Thing by Tone Loc. On Friday put on your dancing shoes, we are moving this party out to sea aboard the harbour cruise. After a tour of the harbour it is back to the mainland for the party of a lifetime at Pier 22 with an amazing light show and music that will last all night long. Closing off Frosh Week '98 is the concert on the hill featuring Great Big Sea, The Chieftans, Colin James and the Little Big Band, The Watchmen, Philosopher Kings and Bran Van 3000. This is a concert you don't want to miss so pick up your tickets now at the Metro Centre or any Sobeys. These are just a few of the activities going on in this action packed week. Don't forget to pick up the orientation schedule for full details. Have fun and play safe. Enjoy it now because next week it's time to hit the books.
