FATHER LABELLE NEW PRESIDENT

The most Reverend James Hayes, Chancellor of Saint Mary's University and the University's Board of Governors, announced the appointment of the Rev. Henry J. Labelle, S.J., as President of the University as of July 1st. Father Labelle succeeds Reverend C. J. Fischer, S.J., President since 1959.

Associated with Saint Mary's since 1946, Father Labelle received his Master's Degree in Philosophy from St. Louis University in 1952. He received his Doctorate in Philosophy from the Gregorian University in Rome in 1960. He is known in the academic community for his advanced courses in contemporary philosophy. Among the alumni he will be remembered by many who followed his dynamic courses. His appointment will be heartily endorsed by those who studied under him.

CLASS OF '57 SETS PRECEDENT

The class of '57 made history when the members held a reunion ten years after graduation. It is the first class to attempt such a function. Twenty-five former classmates, their wives and families attended.

On Friday, August 18, after registration at the university, a buffet luncheon was served at the Citadel Inn. Archbishop Hayes, Chancellor of the university, addressed the group.

In the afternoon Kevin Cleary conducted the visitors on a tour of the university grounds and buildings. When they visited the Arena, Athletic Director Bob Hayes in a brief speech, outlined what he was trying to accomplish.

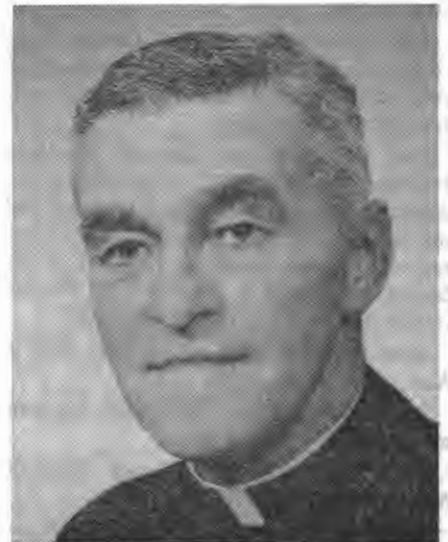

The evening was spent at the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron's Outport station at Purcell's Cove. The feature of this event was Ted Flinn's Lobster Boil.

On Saturday evening a Dinner and Dance was held at the Citadel Inn. The main speaker of the evening was Father Kevin MacPherson.

On Sunday morning Mass was attended in the university chapel. After Mass Brunch was served in the university dining-room. This was the last activity scheduled for the reunion.

ACADEMIC VICE-PRESIDENT

The Most Reverend James Hayes, Chancellor of Saint Mary's University, and the Board of Governors announced the appointment of the Reverend Daniel Fogarty, S.J. as Academic Vice-President as of July 1.

Father Fogarty received his Master's and Doctorate in English from Columbia University. He was Dean of Saint Mary's school of education for eight years. He returns to Saint Mary's and his new position after a sabbatical leave.

Fr. Fogarty has long been associated with Saint Mary's. From 1927-30 he was a student in the High School. He taught in the High School from 1940-42. After an absence of four years he returned and taught English. At that time he reorganized the Alumni Association. From 1950-55 he taught Freshman English and Journalism. From 1957-65 he directed the School of Education.

When attending the VII International Congress of Philosophy in Quebec City in June Father Stewart met Bill Ryan, B.A. '49. Bill is teaching Philosophy at St. Joseph's Teachers' College, Montreal.

While in Montreal Father Stewart had lunch with Bill Murphy and John Stuart. No doubt dramatics was one of the topics of conversation. Bill Murphy is Trust Officer with the Montreal Trust Company. John Stuart is with the Navy.

John Burke came from Yellowknife to attend a National Congress of Correction in June. The Congress was held in Halifax and John took advantage of the opportunity to visit the University and especially Father Rourke.

Marvin Rafuse is teaching in Montreal at Northmount High.

George Simms dropped into the office with a few snippets. He is articling with Walker, Dunlop, Bushell and Caldwell. Terry Donahoe is articling with Palmeter and Rogers. Bill West is with Thompson & Rogers, Toronto. Jack Lovett is in Sudbury. Ned Kelleher is in Halifax with Patrick Fitzgerald. Brother Tom is working in Kitchener, Ont.

David Gray was with Stewart, McKeen & Covert but is spending the year on a Master's degree in Law at University of London.

Rene LeClerc is Sales Representative for the United Shoe Machinery Co. of Canada in Dartmouth.

Raphael Njoroge, S.J., is the first Jesuit of the Upper Canada Province to go to the newly assigned mission area in Zambia, Africa. He will teach in the seminary at Mpima. Since joining the Jesuits in 1962 he has specialized in Philosophy and has obtained his Licentiate and Master's degree from Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash.

Patton MacLean, B.A. '51 was passing the university in his car one evening this summer when he spotted Father Stewart. He stopped the car and reminded Father he had taught him Philosophy up at the old building on Windsor Street. Patton has a family of three and lives in Ottawa.

For the third time in his life Harold "Babe" Beazley scored a hole-in-one on the same hole No. 2 at Brightwood. The first was scored in 1955.

Reverend Dale McClare spent several weeks in town this summer. He is being transferred from Brebeuf High, Willowdale, Ont., to Loyola High, Montreal. Big brother Greg was also in town for a holiday and had a round of golf with Bill MacDougall and his Reverend brother Robert.

Gerry Pothier from Candiac, Que., near Montreal, visited us on July 23 while holidaying in the Maritimes.

In June Bob Smith graduated from M.I.T. with a Bachelor's degree in Aeronautical Engineering.

Reverend Jude (Edmund) O'Leary of the Order of Cistercians of the Strict Observance was ordained to the priesthood on June 29 at Spencer, Mass. Rev. George Leach and Rev. Charles Pottie were present at the ceremony. Father Jude celebrated Mass on July 5th in Halifax at St. Lawrence's Church and met many of his old friends at the reception in the church hall.

Reverend Ronald Cole, S.J., was ordained in June at Willowdale, Ont. He celebrated his first Solemn High Mass in St.

Malachy's Church, Montreal. Father Cole made a short visit to Halifax to marry his niece.

In the Nova Scotia Provincial elections in May, Honourable Richard Donahoe and Douglas MacNell were reelected for the Conservatives. Liberal leader Gerald Regan was also elected. Alex MacKinnon, Bruce Wallace and Victor Cleyle suffered defeat.

Byrne Melanson is Supervisor of Training for Texaco on Inglis Street.

When Father Power was doing research work in the Toronto Library in May he ran into Ervin Doak. At the airport he was surprised to discover that the young man at the desk of Eastern Air Lines was Rene MacKinnon.

Father Power's research project on the letters of Alexander Pope took him to London for several weeks this summer. One day on the steps of the British Museum he ran into Professor James Ryan who was in England doing research work on Hampton Court. It's a small, small world.

Henry Cheng of Hong Kong visited us on May 30th. Henry is Managing Director of a firm that deals in spinning and weaving, knit wear, cotton wear and cotton waste.

Lorne MacDougall, Q.C., was named to the Royal Dairy Commission May 31st.

Father Edward Granville, who was a student here from 1936 to 1939 and taught in the High School 1951-53, visited Halifax in the first week of June. He has been teaching at Regiopolis College but is taking a year off to study English at Queen's University.

Donald Joey Johnson, Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Water Street, St. John's, Nfld., has been elected for the third straight year President of the Newfoundland Amateur Hockey Association.

In June Reverend William Lonc, S.J., made his annual retreat here. In June also Father Vincent "Harvey" Murphy was here for the same purpose.

Father Johnson when passing through Middleton visited Dr. Robert Munro. The doctor has a large practice.

Edmund Boyd spent the summer in Australia.

I met Gerald Courtney recently. I also met Dr. Dave Janigan. David has been in Halifax for the past year and is attached to the Victoria General Hospital.

Pat Curran has been awarded a Sir James Dunn scholarship and will begin the study of Law in September at Dalhousie.

Father Elmer MacGillivray enrolled in a theology course at Loyola Institute of Pastoral Studies in Chicago this summer and found two other SMU alumni were following the same course—Father Albert O'Driscoll and Father John Green, O.M.I.

Dr. C. Henry Reardon has been appointed Chief of the Department of General Practice at the Halifax Infirmary. He succeeds Dr. J. E. H. Miller. Concurrently Dalhousie University has announced the appointment of Dr. Reardon to the Department of Medicine, providing GP participation in the School of Medicine's educational program.

When I was about to board the plane in Toronto on my return flight, Bruce Hyland joined me and I had the pleasure of his company as far as Montreal. Bruce is Managing Director of a fish processing and distributing company. I think it is called Blue Sea.

Terry Foley brought his family to Nova Scotia for a holiday. His son Chris was enrolled as a resident student and quickly referred to Bob Hayes. Chris should prove an answer to Bob's problems about getting stalwart linemen.

Two alumni were on our summer school staff. Peter Aucoin lectured in Political Science and Ted Levy in French.

Father George Hoffman, S.J. spent the summer on a course in French presented by the University of Toronto at St. Pierre. He is taking a leave of absence to pursue a Doctorate at Fordham.

Jack Leydon and his wife Sue visited Father Burke-Gaffney when they were in Halifax on holiday in July. They live in Houston, Texas.

The Alumni regret the departure of Father Fischer. He was a true friend of the alumni and did everything within his power to encourage the Alumni Association. His record as president stands written in buildings. When he started his career we had only one building. At its close we have five.

We also regret the departure of Dr. Bernard Sheehan. He was Dean of Arts and Science before leaving to join the staff of the University of Calgary. In a very gracious letter to the Moderator he offers his services in establishing and maintaining links with the Alumni in the Western regions of Canada.

From Darjeeling, India we have a letter from Father William Bourke, S.J., B.A. '46, B.Comm. '47 in which he observes, "I could not help smiling at the Maroon & White's most recent issue. A drive to obtain $25,000. to build an arena and sports center. That's about what I have managed to scrape together to build the school I'm working on."

the past year he completed his Doctorate in Theology. He will be on the staff of Memorial University in St. John's in the capacity of Chaplain. He will also teach a course in mechanics.

Robert Beary graduated in Dentistry from Dalhousie May 18. He is Assistant Dental Surgeon for the United States Public Health Service at Fort Worth, Texas.

Dentist Jim Cleary has set up an office in Tewkesbury, Mass.

Jack Radford, Doug Sampson, Dick Connolly and Roy Velemirovich have passed their final Chartered Accountant examinations.

Reverend James Hanrahan, C.S.B. has been elected First Assistant to the Superior General of the Basilians.

Terry Heenan has become a Vice-President of British Columbia Telephone and has taken up residence in Vancouver.

Lloyd Melanson obtained his Master's degree in Library Science from McGill in May and is now in charge of cataloguing at Saint Mary's.

John Vissers has moved to Los Angeles and is working for Airsearch Manufacturing Co. He is trying to pick up an MBA through night courses at the University of Southern California.

Harold Rounsefell is now a partner of the consulting firm Duffus, Romans, Kundzins and Rounsefell.

Father James McGarry has been transferred to Ignatius College, Guelph, Ont.

Webby (Wilbert) Martel dropped into the Alumni Office during a late August visit to Halifax. He is teaching in Picton, Ont. He reports having met Chuck Jones and Bob MacDonald in Toronto. Chuck will be teaching in Coburg, Ont. this year.

Frank Villela '52 is taking a course at California State College. He lives in La Canada, California.

Another visitor who brought us a few snippets was Reg. MacDougall when he came back East from Calgary for a holiday. Reg. will be vice-principal at St. James Junior High this coming year. He reports having met Jim Flagg who is a stockbroker in Calgary. Ken Kelly is vice-principal at Brebeuf; Kevin Joncas is teaching at St. Francis High; Jed Hawco and Don Murphy are practising Law; Buddy Garagan is a salesman for a pharmaceutical company in Edmonton.

Commander Gar Dixon, Government House Secretary, stepped ashore at Thetis Island, B.C. with a 37-pound salmon. Local fishermen and ferryboat operators say it is the biggest fish they've seen landed in those waters in years.
