

ANNUAL DINNER

The Multi-Purpose Room in the new high-rise of our Student Residence Building on campus was the scene of our Alumni Association Annual Dinner on December 8th, 1971. As I am sure all those who attended will agree, the spacious and comfortable surroundings made the evening that much more pleasant. For those who were not able to be with us I can assure you that the new building is certainly one of which all Santamarians can be very proud.

The Dinner was not as well attended as many in the recent past, and as Chairman of the Annual Dinner Committee the blame must rest with the writer. In self defense it may be said that there were many usually faithful alumni who decided not to attend the Dinner this year for reasons known only to themselves. On the other hand, the criticism that many were not contacted and that the pre-Dinner advertising left something to be desired may be valid. The Executive has considered this matter since the Dinner and there should be a noticeable improvement in the future.

There were 114 tickets sold for the Dinner which was preceded by a rousing Reception as seems to be the case with most alumni affairs. The fact that dinner was to be served at 7:30 p.m. didn't seem to interfere with the bar which closed at approximately 8:00 p.m. Needless to say, Alumni "spirit" was running "high" as the Dinner commenced.

The head table this year was comprised of our current Alumni President, Robert Shaw, His Grace, Archbishop Hayes, President of Saint Mary's University, Dr. Owen Carrigan, Mrs. Eileen Dunlop who very graciously and expertly proposed the toast to the University, His Lordship, Mr. Justice J. L. Dubinsky, our guest speaker for the evening, Rev. Bernard Murphy who extended thanks to the guest speaker, and the writer, who had the very pleasant task of introducing, Mr. Justice Dubinsky. It was hoped that both Mr. Austin Hayes, Chairman of the Board of Governors of the University and Premier Gerald Regan would be joining us as head table guests, but neither was able to attend.

Eileen Dunlop's fine toast to the University was the first ever delivered at our Annual Dinner by a member of the distaff side and I am sure the precedent which she has set will be followed often in the future.

Mr. Justice Dubinsky who is a Judge of the Trial Division of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia presented the gathering with a speech that was humorous, topical and at times most profound. His theme was a melange of his own thoughts on where our society has been, and where it is now in terms of our aspirations and needs and desires, and where it can, with the adoption of the proper outlooks and attitudes, lead us all in the future. Optimism and faith are obvious cornerstones of his belief and his audience was receptive and responsive and greatly impressed with his speech.

Your Alumni Association took the opportunity at the Dinner to pay tribute to Miss Mildred Harrington upon her retirement from the faculty of the University. As many of the Alumni are aware, Miss Harrington has been a vital and integral part of life at Saint Mary's for approximately fifteen (15) years and her departure will be sorely felt. Miss Harrington was presented with a bouquet of roses and a more lasting memento of the affection and esteem of the Alumni is to be presented to her at a later date. Miss Harrington was at her oratorical best when addressing the Dinner audience in response to the presentation and I am confident that all Alumni join me in wishing Miss Harrington an interesting and restful retirement.

As a closing note I should point out that the Dinner realized a small profit despite the relatively small attendance and we are most hopeful that all those who did attend had an enjoyable time. To those who were not with us, I trust that we will contact all of you well enough in advance of next year's Dinner to make it possible for you to spend the evening with us.

Respectfully Submitted,
Terence R.B. Donahoe
Chairman

Annual Dinner Committee, 1971

A DEDICATED TEACHER ENDS MEMORABLE CAREER

By DOROTHY READ

The first woman ever appointed to the staff or faculty of any Jesuit school or university in Canada, Miss Mildred Harrington, retired recently after fifteen years on the faculty of St. Mary's University.

A native of Prince Edward Island, Miss Harrington is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Harrington and a niece of the late Right Honourable Sir William Wilfred Sullivan.

Following her graduation from Prince of Wales College, Miss Harrington, who holds Bachelor of Arts and Education degrees, attended the Ontario College of Art, where two of the lecturers were Arthur Lismer and Frederick Varley of the Group of Seven.

Miss Harrington is an accomplished artist, and her works accent her fine collection of antique mahogany and oriental rugs.

She served on the faculty of Prince of Wales College and the Provincial Normal School for nearly 35 years and during that time, was appointed principal ex officio of the model school.

"This was a four-room department of the college where all prospective teachers received their demonstration methods and did practise teaching," Miss Harrington said.

While on the staff of Prince of Wales College, Miss Harrington was given a year's leave of absence to travel across Canada and enroll as a supply teacher in

Dr. Gerald W. Tait

Dr. Tait to new post

Reverend Gerald W. Tait, S.J., academic vice-president of Saint Mary's University for the past two years, has been appointed president of Regis College, Toronto.

The appointment, which becomes effective July 1, was announced by Rev. Edward F. Sheridan, S.J., Provincial of the Upper Canada Province of the Society of Jesus, during a recent visit to Saint Mary's University.

Regis College has been affiliated with Saint Mary's since 1957 and associated with the Toronto School of Theology which is a federation of theology schools and often referred to as the most advanced ecumenical school of its kind in North America.

During the past year Regis College was empowered by Saint Mary's to extend its academic program to include the degree of doctor of theology. It also changed its basic degree of bachelor of divinity to master of divinity and was authorized to register non-Jesuit, as well as Jesuit, students in its theology programs.

In commenting on the announcement, Saint Mary's University President Dr. D. Owen Carrigan said that while he regretted losing a capable administrator and congenial colleague he was nevertheless pleased that Father Tait was undertaking the important position.

"His services will not be entirely lost to Saint Mary's since Regis is affiliated with us. With him at the helm the relationship between the two institutions will grow even closer," he said.

Father Tait's new position, he said, "opens up some very interesting possibilities for extended cooperation in the areas of religious studies" between the two institutions.

"This is particularly true in light of the fact that Regis is an important component of the

President's Message

This year is moving along quite fast and the alumni executive has been busy. The New Year's Eve dance was a success for the entertainment committee and proved to be of interest to many of our alumni of all ages. The annual dinner was again held at the University Campus, this year in the new academic building. Our guest speaker of the evening was His Honor Judge L. Dubinsky. His talk was extremely entertaining and was well received. We were slightly disappointed with the attendance as many of our regulars were noticeably absent.

As President I have been concerned, together with the other alumni executive with attempting to redraft our former mode of operation in order to provide a fuller communication between the University and its alumni. The future appears to hold brighter possibilities of obtaining this objective. We have also concerned ourselves with facing the challenge of a restructure of the alumni organization in order to assure some form of expanded base from which to increase the number of events and programs that can be offered.

As you may or may not be aware, the alumni must support itself financially without recourse to any operating funds from the University. At present, the University provides an office with the partial services of a secretary. Hardly a formidable base, but the only support structure which we can financially contend with at the present. During the past year we have received dues payments from approximately 600 of our alumni roll of some 3,300. This represents 20%. We have to arrange our publication and conduct our mailings (at relatively high postal rates), along with all the general expenses of the association from these receipts. As the annual fund has not generated anything but nominal receipts in the past year we have dipped into current funds for our yearly financial contribution to the University.

The result of this situation is quite restrictive in the number of ventures we are able to pursue and the cost at which they can be provided. This comes at a time when we see the longer term members starting to find these feelings for this new University of Saint Mary's somewhat mixed. It is more difficult to keep informed to understand, and to appreciate in the changing times. These members need many more ways to participate and a greater, continuing flow of information about the changing institution.

Also there are a vast number of new members joining each year which should be given special programs, appealing to the younger set.

It all takes money and a structure to organize and administrate. This in part has been our challenge and will undoubtedly remain as a challenge for the next year.

This will undoubtedly represent a topic of discussion at the Annual Meeting in April. I sincerely hope as many as possible of you can attend.

Toronto School of Theology," he said.

Regis College was accredited in 1970 by The American Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada. This is the recognized body for accreditation of graduate schools in which students are prepared for the Christian ministry. Only five other Canadian schools — Emmanuel, Knox, McGill, McMaster and Trinity — enjoy the same distinction.

Dr. Tait was born at Brockville, Ontario. After service with the Royal Canadian Artillery and the Royal Canadian Air Force during World War II, he entered the Society of Jesus and was ordained in 1958.

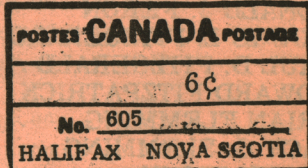

His education includes graduation from both Canadian and European universities where he has earned a total of five degrees. Prior to coming to Saint Mary's in 1969, Dr. Tait spent two years at the University of Strasbourg where he received his doctorate in religious studies.

Dr. Tait has taught at several Canadian colleges including Ignatius, Guelph, and St. Paul's, Winnipeg. From 1960 to 1967 he held an administrative post at Loyola College, Montreal.

During his stay at Saint Mary's, Dr. Tait served on nine major university committees, chairing both the executive and graduate studies committees. He also served on the university's senate and board of governors.

Dr. Tait replaces Reverend Frederick Crowe, S.J., who has been president of Regis for the past two years. Father Crowe, who once taught at Saint Mary's, was awarded an honorary doctor of letters degree at the university's Spring convocation.

different cities in order to familiarize herself with their teaching methods.

In 1936, she took part in the Vimy pilgrimage to France when the Vimy Ridge monument was unveiled and while in Europe, toured the British Isles to study teaching methods.

In Britain, she attended the garden party at Buckingham Palace, where she was presented to King Edward VIII, now the Duke of Windsor.

In 1946, on a two-years' leave of absence, she accepted the position of teacher in an English private school with the Leaseholds Oil Company in Trinidad. While on the staff, the company gave Miss Harrington a trip to England, where she selected two teachers to join the private school faculty.

Miss Harrington returned to Prince of Wales College in 1948, where she remained until 1957 when she was invited to join the faculty of St. Mary's University by the then president, Very Rev. P. G. Malone, S.J.

Miss Harrington's abilities as an outstanding teacher are very apparent. She has taught mathematics, French and Latin and has always been most interested in assisting foreign students in mastery of the English language.

Upon her retirement from St. Mary's University, Miss Harrington was highly honored. The Jesuit community held a celebrated Mass for her special intentions, which was followed by a university-sponsored luncheon party.

While women's liberation does not quickly come to mind when speaking with this charming woman, Miss Harrington has during her extensive career, entered predominantly male fields.

In her early years in the teaching profession, she augmented her income by selling insurance during the summer vacation and in the first month sold more policies than any other salesman in Eastern Canada.

Now, in addition to travelling, Miss Harrington professes a keen interest in reading, bridge, painting and keeping "fit".

S.M.U. SPONSORS ART GALLERY

Saint Mary's University will establish a permanent art extension gallery at the Miner's Museum, Glace Bay, and will make exhibitions available on a year-round basis to residents of the area.

Robert Dietz, the Halifax-based university's gallery curator, and Christopher Severance, director of the Miner's Museum, made this joint announcement yesterday on behalf of their respective boards.

The official opening will be held at the museum in mid May and the first exhibition will be a showing of Ruth Wainwright paintings.

It will be Saint Mary's responsibility to keep the museum supplied with exhibitions of the works of local, national and international artists. Many will be made possible through an interprovincial association known as the Atlantic Provinces Art Circuit, of which Saint Mary's is a member. Others will be assembled at the university's gallery in Halifax and shipped to Glace Bay.

Between May and September, when an estimated 60,000 visitors tour the museum, the exhibits will be "mostly promotion for good Nova Scotian artists ... we have plenty of excellent painters and craftsmen in this province and we want to display their works whenever we can," said Mr. Dietz.

According to Mr. Severance, museum officials have been looking for an opportunity like the one now offered and are "extremely pleased that Saint Mary's has come through with this fantastic commitment."

The area has no public gallery and these exhibits "will go a long way to fill the gap," he said.

Mr. Severance said it was "especially apt" that Saint Mary's should get involved because its new president, Dr. D. Owen Carrigan, was one of the major fund raisers to get the museum built back in 1967 when he was on the faculty at Xavier College.

Mr. Dietz said the university's decision to go ahead with the extension gallery was the result of two months discussion which resulted in the approval of both the governing bodies involved and the Nova Scotia Museum.

"Everyone talked to agreed on the importance of having a public gallery in the community ... and one that operated the full 12 months of the year. This joint venture should be of mutual benefit to all concerned," said Mr. Dietz.

LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT

RE: Complaint — Student Activities

Dear Mr. Shaw:

In going over my records, I have found I was negligent in paying my Annual Membership Fee for which I enclose my cheque. However, at this time I have grave reservation as to whether or not I wanted to belong to or associate with an institution that appears to be doing little in regards to the direction and chastisement of its students.

The latest incident at Dalhousie I found to be disgusting and degrading to my "ole Alma Mater", I voice these objections as a citizen, taxpayer, father, a K.O.C. Director of Community Activities and finally as an Alumnus.

Just being an engineer, I will not be able to give any flowering statements of logic but I'll just try and point out a few things that are wrong:

DALHOUSIE INCIDENT

Let us start at the Dalhousie incident, are the guilty students involved going to be reprimanded and expelled from college? I would bet a dollar to a donut that the idiots that did the stone-throwing and swearing were those long-haired ginks who don't know a football from a hockey puck. A real mature act. The act of stealing the Dal "Tiger" is not so bad in itself, it at least shows patriotism to the college but these side incidents were deplorable.

FOOTBALL GAMES @ SMU

Unbenounced to the managerial staff of SMU (sarcasm) there is widespread drinking in the stands during games and no punitive or restrictive measures appear to be taken by the Campus Police. Intelligent statements like "Dal Sucks" or "UNB Sucks" have replaced the college song, it appears that the student's sign of being mature and adult is their ability to be able to swear or be offensive. big deal!

STAFF REDUCTION

Should not the President make major announcements concerning staff reduction to the public? It appears to be a repeat of the Tech incident which was totally unnecessary.

OPEN RESIDENCES

I do not agree that residences should be open to both male and female visits to all hours of the morning. I could go into some minor objections, e.g. invasion of the privacy of students, etc. but I think it boils down to SEX. Most students at this age are not mature enough to handle night after night confrontations with the opposite sex in private bedrooms. God knows they are only human and premartial sex is almost certain to occur and I am definitely against premartial sex for these kids. Their maturity is exhibited by the acts outlined above. Saint Mary's University used to be a very religious university under the Jesuits and a "Father Labelle" of those days would not have tolerated any of this nonsense going on today.

I am willing to concede that I do not have all of my facts, 100% correct and I expect your reply will straighten me out in this regard.

In closing, exactly what involvement does the managerial staff of the University take in regard to disciplining the students?

A large number of the professors etc. at St. Mary's stress being one of the boys rather than college professors and advisors.

I would appreciate a reply at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,
F.A. Gervais, P. Eng.
Alumnus.

Ervil Cormier of Air Canada has been transferred to Montreal from Halifax.

Ronald Cole visited the university in March.

Luke Feetham called my attention to an issue of the B.C. Catholic featuring the Fiftieth Anniversary of Vancouver College. In an article mention is made of two Christian Brothers of Ireland who formerly taught at Saint Mary's. Brother Michael J. Lannon was principal of Vancouver College from its founding in 1922 through 1928 and again from 1930 to 1933. Brother C. C. Sterling was principal from 1933-1939.
