St. Mary's University
Halifax, Nova Scotia

Historically...

According to the archives of the early nineteenth century Saint Mary's University was founded in 1802 as Saint Mary's College by the Reverend Edmund Burke, later Bishop Burke. The early days of Saint Mary's College were difficult ones indeed. For some years the college was administered without financial assistance or official recognition from the colonial government of the day.

On March 29, 1841 a bill was passed in the house of assembly, which at that time was under the speakership of Sir Joseph Howe, "incorporating the trustees of Saint Mary's College at Halifax". These privileges were made perpetual on April 8, 1852.

Saint Mary's College was administered successfully by the Christian Brothers of the Congregation of Saint John and the Christian Brothers of Ireland. During this time the site of the college had been changed from Belle Aire Terrace to Barrington Street and then to a newly acquired property at Quinpool Road and Windsor Street.

It was in April of 1918 that Saint Mary's College was ". . . deemed and taken to be a university, with all the necessary and usual powers and privileges exercised by universities . . ."

In 1940 on the invitation of the late Archbishop McNally the Jesuit Fathers assumed the direction of the university; and in 1951 the university was moved to its present site, the location of the former Collins Estate and Gorsebrook Golf Club. Ideally situated in the south end of the city Saint Mary's makes it home in one of the finest buildings in Eastern Canada. With a renewed sense of dedication, Saint Mary's plans to maintain the traditions of the past and provide for the increasing demands of the future.

Our Patroness...

All the beauty and serenity of the Virgin Mary is caught in this painting, "HOLY MARY", by Florence Kroger, which is one of the few portraits of her without the Christ Child.

Dedication

The page features a solid blue background. In the upper left, the word "Dedication" is written in a gold, cursive font within a white rectangular box. A large, white, stylized 'X' shape is formed by three lines: a solid line from the top right to the bottom left, a solid line from the top left to the bottom right, and a dashed line from the top left to the bottom right. In the lower right, a white rectangular box contains a dedication text in a gold, serif font. A thick white horizontal bar is positioned below this box.

In dedicating these pages to higher learning, we know that we give expression to the aims that are foremost in our University, Saint Mary's.

Foreword

We are living in a century with an outstanding storehouse of knowledge about God's monumental work, man and the universe. True learning and true religion must be entirely compatible because they have identical origin. Learning without religion is but a ship sailing an uncharted course. This book has been written for your reading pleasure, but MORE IMPORTANT, to acquaint you with the students of Saint Mary's who will take their place in this fascinating world for God's greater glorification.

PRIME MINISTER
JOHN DIEFENBAKER

DR. WILLIAM ROSS
FLEMINGTON

HAROLD SCANLON FOLEY

On January 30th of this year the university held a special convocation to confer honorary degrees on Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, Harold Scanlon Foley, Director of the Powell River Company Limited, and Reverend Dr. William Thomas Ross Flemington, President of Mount Allison University.

In the words of Very Reverend P. G. Malone, President of the university, "the three men were chosen for recognition by Saint Mary's for their contribution to Canadian life and particularly to the development of international understanding and good will."

The Prime Minister who delivered the convocation address received the degree of Doctor of Laws (Honoris Causa) in recognition of his contribution to public life and to the improvement of commonwealth relations. The degree was conferred on Mr. Foley in recognition of his "outstanding assistance" to Hungarian students and for his contribution to Canadian economic development.

After the revolution in Hungary in the fall of 1956 almost the whole faculty and student body of the University of Sopron escaped. The University of British Columbia had no facilities for the Hungarians but Mr. Foley volunteered to house the entire school—285 students and 30 professors—in a construction camp north of Vancouver.

Dr. Flemington received his degree in recognition of his services to Canada in wartime, when he served as principle Protestant Chaplain overseas, and in peacetime, as President of Mount Allison University. The degree also honors the centenary year of his university which has contributed "so significantly" to education in the Maritimes.

IN VINCULO CARITATIS

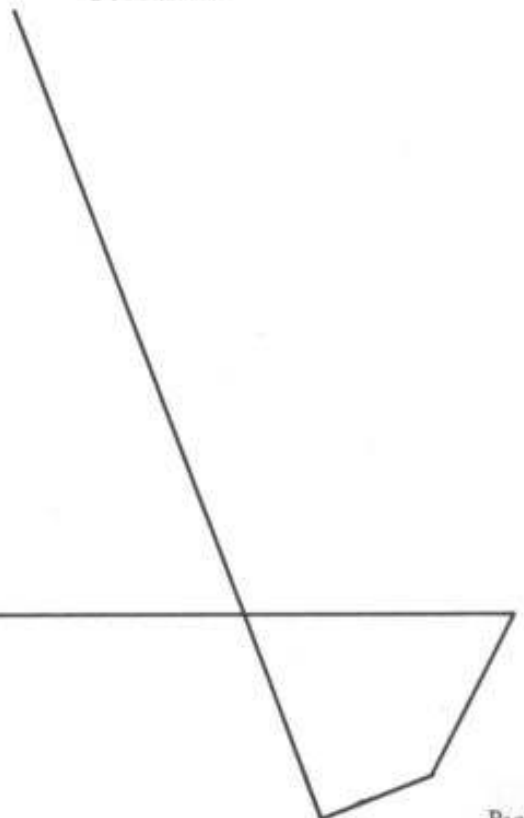

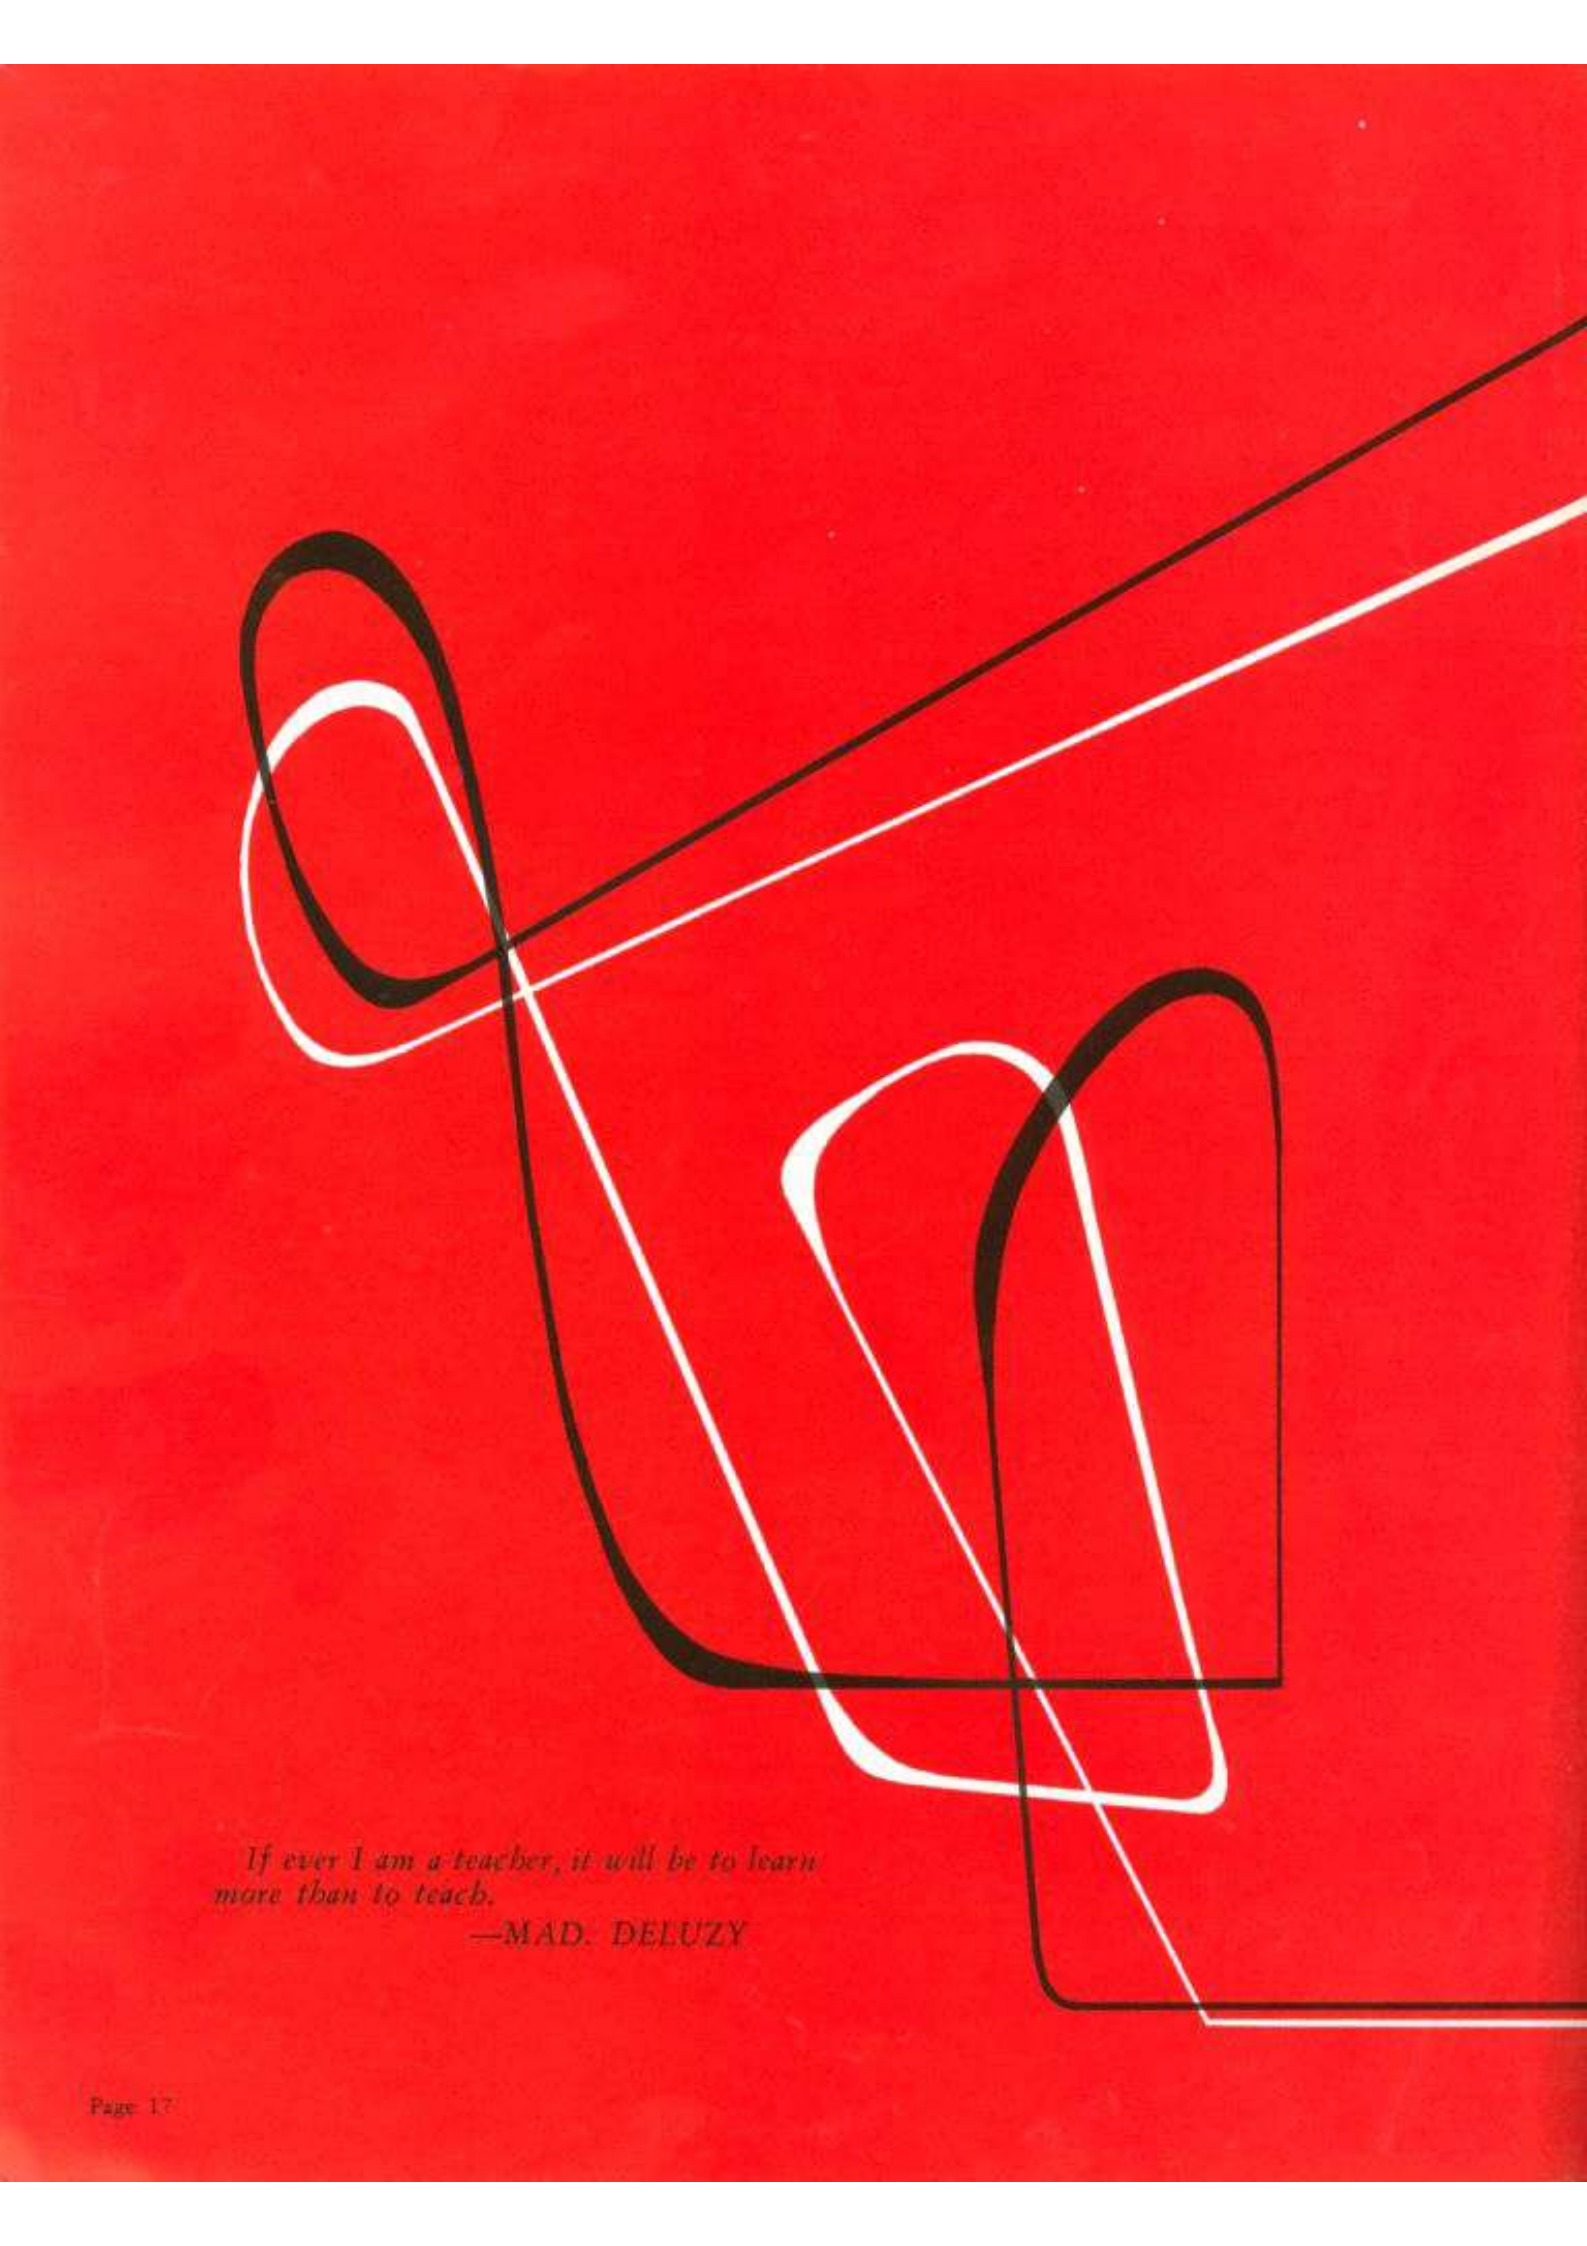

DEAR GRADUATES OF 1958,

You have a sign of your graduation in the parchment handed to you and the letters after your name. I hope that you will have a still brighter sign in the quality of your thought, of your character and of your leadership. These are things that Saint Mary's sought to have you learn on which to shape your life. These are the things Saint Mary's wants you to inspire in others, wherever you may go and whatever you may do. I pray that God will bless you and prosper all your endeavors.

PATRICK G. MALONE, S.J.

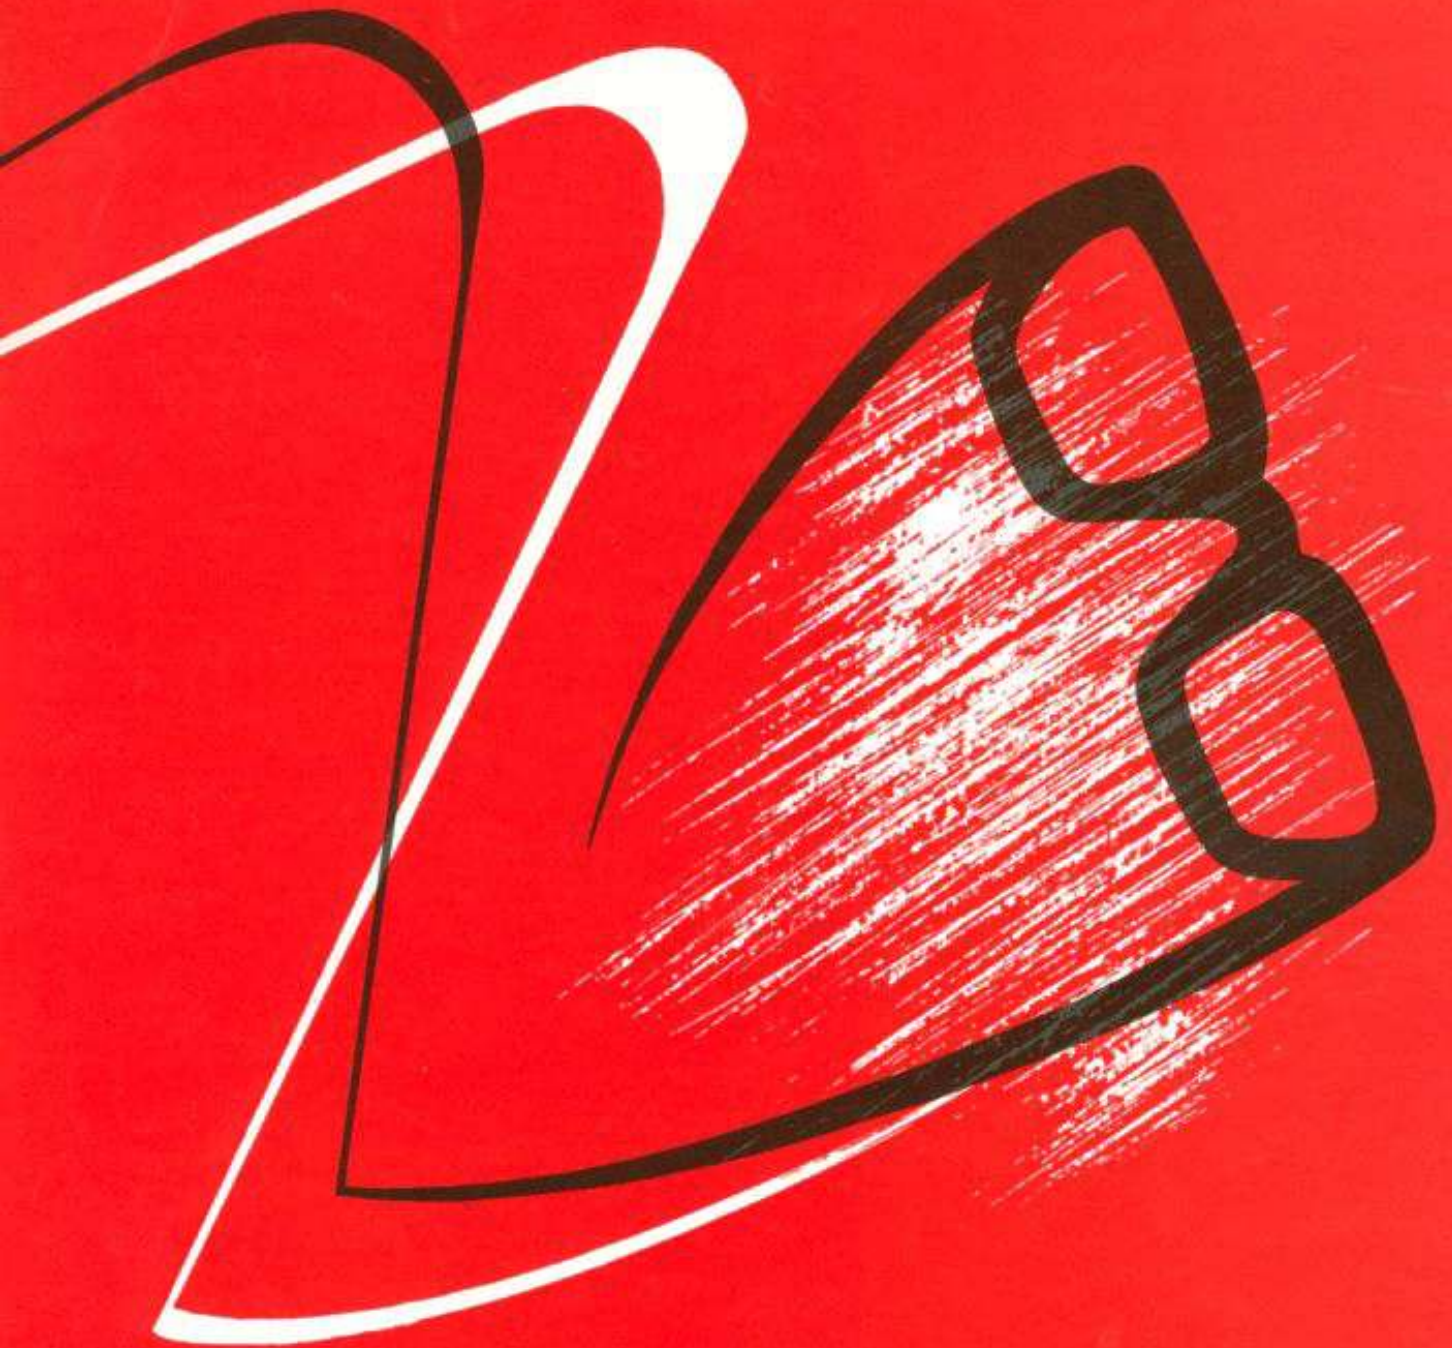

President

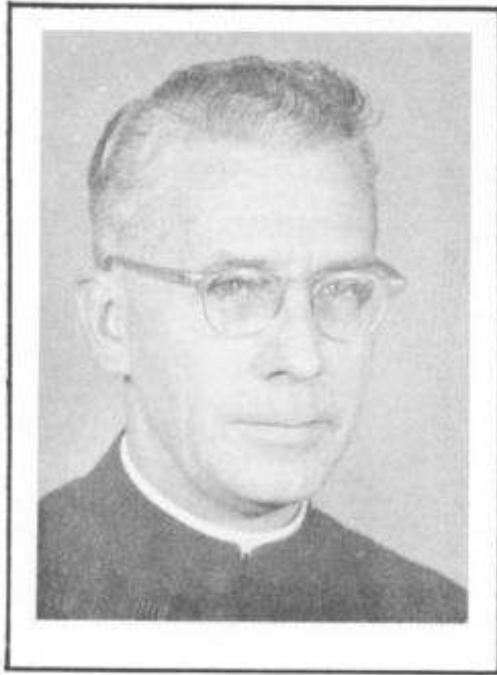

An abstract graphic design featuring a solid red background. Overlaid on this background are several thick, hand-drawn lines. A prominent black line forms a large, irregular shape that resembles a stylized letter 'L' or a similar character. A white line follows a similar path but is offset from the black one, creating a sense of depth or shadow. Additionally, a thin white line runs diagonally across the upper portion of the image, and another thin black line runs diagonally across the lower portion, intersecting the larger shapes.

If ever I am a teacher, it will be to learn more than to teach.

Ordained to the Holy Priesthood 1958

Ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and ye shall find: Knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
N.T., Matthew, VII, 7

EGO TE ABSOLVO

DEARLY BELOVED SONS,
as you are now about to be consecrated to the office of the Priesthood, endeavor to receive it worthily, and when you have received it, to fulfill its duties blamelessly. The Priest is ordained to offer Sacrifice, to bless, to guide, to preach and to baptize . . . Wherefore, dearly beloved sons, whom the voice of our brethren has chosen that you may be consecrated as our helpers, let your conduct at all times be the outcome of a chaste and holy life. Consider what you do, imitate that which you handle; and as you celebrate the Mysteries of the Lord's Death, be earnest in ridding your members by mortification of all vices and lusts. Let your teaching be a spiritual remedy for God's people; let the fragrance of your lives be a delight to the Church of God, that both by preaching and by example you may build up the house—that is the family of God, so that neither we may deserve to be condemned of the Lord for promoting you to so sublime an office, nor you for taking it upon yourselves, but rather that He may reward us all. May He of His grace grant us this.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council aims at promoting the best interests of the students in all non-academic matters.

This year the Council passed major revisions in the constitution radically changing the system of representation. Henceforth all major and intermediate organizations will have a voting seat on the Council. Also the offices of secretary and treasurer were made elected positions.

During the year the Council was pleased to welcome to the campus delegations to the Atlantic Regional Convention of the National Federation of Canadian University Students and the annual C.C.S.M.C. Rally.

In January the Council took great pleasure in presenting an honorary Gold "M," highest student award to Prime Minister John Deifenbaker.

The association regulates the athletic activities of the students. All external and internal intramural contests, the conferring of athletic prizes, letters and other awards, are under the direction of the executive of this association.

This year the association as in the past sponsored very successful intramural sports such as football, hockey and basketball. This year saw the re-appearance of the intramural bowling league. An entirely new intramural activity this year has been the successful introduction of the curling league.

On the intercollegiate level the university was well represented in all sports. The tennis doubles team won this year's intercollegiate championship.

The junior football team again won the Maritime Junior Football championship.

The annual Teasure Van Sale was once again a huge success under the co-sponsorship of Saint Mary's and Dalhousie University.

The 1957 seminar participant, Ronald Barnes informed the student body, as well as many city organizations, through articles in the journal and public addresses, of his interesting experiences and travels in Africa.

Saint Mary's is one of the thirteen Catholic colleges in Canada registered as a member of the organization commonly known as "CFCCS" to hundreds of Canadian students.

CFCCS held its annual convention at Loyola College in Montreal. The national project adopted at this convention deals with the question of mental health work.

The local committee in conjunction with the Sodality sponsored an extensive programme in connection with the national project.

The regional convention held at Saint Francis Xavier University gave Atlantic committees a chance to iron out some of their problems before attending the annual convention.

CFCCS continues to stimulate spiritual, intellectual, social and cultural endeavours.

The Gamma Gamma Society is open to all students interested in public speaking. Ample opportunities are offered to the members to train themselves under capable direction.

Saint Mary's has debated with other Atlantic universities as a member of the Maritime Inter-collegiate Debating League.

Open forums, model parliament, parliamentary debates, mock trials, and other forms of public speaking under the leadership of the Gamma Gamma Society prove to be very effective as well as interesting.

Students compete annually for the Haliburton Gold Medal awarded to the winner of the annual public speaking contest. There is also a radio speaking trophy donated by radio station CHNS.

Along with other major plans for next year, Gamma Gamma will play host to the Maritime inter-Collegiate League Conference to be held at Saint Mary's.

The Journal

The Journal of 1958 had a banner year. "The voice of the students" more than fulfilled its purpose in that it expressed throughout the year the opinions and feelings of the student body.

Students welcomed the inclusion of more feature articles in the editions published this year. Letters to the editor indicated student interest unequaled in other years.

The student opinion column, started last year continued to be a "favourite" with the students. Many controversial topics were treated in this column.

This paper this year took on a "new look" with its change in size. As a result all editions contained not less than six pages.

The old man of basketball, Frank Baldwin again led the squad during the 5758 season. During the regular season they compiled a 4-4 record and wound up in third place.

Facing the strong Dalhousie Tigers in the semi-finals, the Red team put up a bitter battle and after having won the first clash, bowed to the Tigers two games straight.

Team spirit was high as was the stature of the stalwarts. Rookies for this year were Varaggi (Hungary), Bob Shea (Lee, Mass.), Paul Murphy (Portland, Maine), and Fred Walker (Halifax).

Bill Mullane in his second year of play was the top scorer for the "Saints" for the year with 98 points in 8 games. Pheeney second and Ross third were two others to share the limelight.

Semi-Finals brought two injuries which hampered the team's chances for a good show.

Congratulations to St. F.X., champions again.

Wins did not come easy to the SMU varsity this year. As often happens in body contact sports the score frequently does not indicate the play. This was the case with the "Saints" this year. Despite their poor showing in the win and loss column this year the team played a very good brand of hockey and provided their fans with excitement and colour.

The team was coached by Rev. E. Mac-Gillvary, S.J., a one-time star of the Halifax Saint Mary's hockey fame. One of the brighter lights of the hockey team this year was Reg. McDougall who won the athlete of the year award mainly because of his tremendous showing in the maroon and white net.

Indications point to a much more successful team next year, with most of the team returning for another year.

Interest in inter-faculty sports this year hit an all time high. Teams, especially in football and basketball were strengthened.

Bowling returned on the list of inter-faculty sports this year under the able chairmanship of Don MacKinnon. This sport held great interest during the school year.

The new gym allowed basketball players ample time for games and practices and as a result this sport has many new interested participants.

Hockey continued to be in the spotlight in inter-faculty sports, while football was once again the top league of the campus.

Curling was re-organized on an intramural basis this year and it is increasing in popularity.

HAPPINESS IS

A TELEPHONE CALL

A voice you hadn't heard for weeks or months . . . The offer of a job you wanted so much to win . . . An invitation to a party you know will be great fun . . . Good news from your family or faraway friends . . .

In everyone's life, so much happiness starts with the ring of the telephone. So often, the calls you receive are more important to you than those you make which is just one more reason why telephone service is one of your biggest bargains.

Dedicated to the Formation of

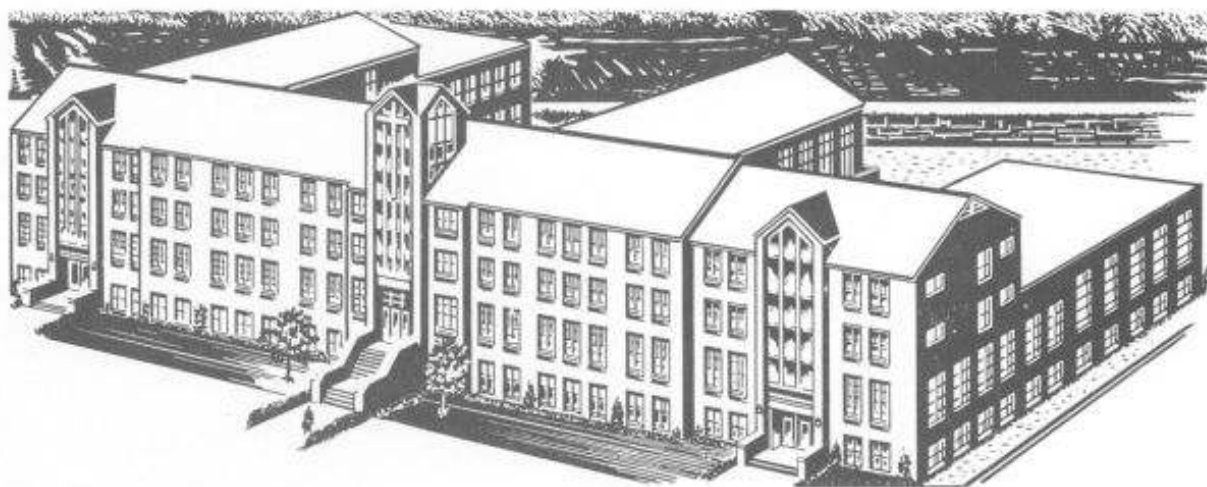

CHRISTIAN WOMANHOOD

Conducted by the Sisters of Charity of Halifax

Mount Saint Vincent College offers to young women a thorough liberal education designed to guide, nourish and stimulate the adolescent mind and thereby to develop intelligent Catholic women, spiritually vigorous Catholics, cultured Catholics who are vocationally prepared to become the citizens of tomorrow. The formation of a nation's citizens is largely the work of the nation's women. Therefore, a college which forms women according to the ideal of the most blessed among women contributes in the highest degree to the happiness and well-being of the nation.

Mount Saint Vincent College, which may honorably boast of this high mission, is among the leading Canadian colleges for women, enjoying the highest scholastic standing through its election to membership in the National Conference of Canadian Universities.

It is the only Canadian Women's College empowered to confer its own degrees.
