(e) "the President" means the President of the University;

(f) "property" includes both real and personal property;

(g) "the Senate" means the Senate of the University;

(h) "the University" means Saint Mary's University;

(i) "the Diocese" means The Roman Catholic Episcopal Corporation of Halifax.

THE UNIVERSITY

3 Saint Mary's University, originally incorporated by Chapter 29 of the Acts of 1841 is hereby continued as a body politic and corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall continue to be a university with all the usual powers, privileges and functions exercised by a university, including the power of conferring all degrees in every faculty.

MEMBERSHIP

4 (1) The University shall consist of the Board and officers of the University and of all who are entitled to elect members of the Board.

(2) No religious test shall be required of any officer, employee or student of the University, nor shall any such person be required to take part in any religious observances of any denomination.

OBJECTS

5 The objects of the University are:

(a) to promote and disseminate learning and knowledge;

(b) to give special emphasis to the Christian tradition and values in higher education;

(c) to provide an atmosphere of freedom, responsibility and mutual respect in the University community;

(d) to aid in the improvement of society in all ways consistent with these objects.

CORPORATE POWERS

6 Without limiting the generality of Section 3 the University has the power, capacity and authority:

(a) to purchase or take by donation, deed, devise, bequest, lease, gift, grant or otherwise, real or personal property of any and every description, and to hold, sell, lease, mortgage, pledge, charge or hypothecate the same;

(b) to borrow money for the purposes of the University and to secure the repayment of the same by any form of debenture, bond, mortgage, pledge, charge, deed of trust, hypothecation promissory note, or other security;

(c) to draw, make, accept, execute, issue and endorse bills of exchange, cheques, promissory notes, hypothecation forms, or such other instruments, as may be found necessary or convenient;

(d) to take security by way of mortgage or otherwise for any money from time to time owing to the University, including interest thereon;

(e) subject to any provisions to the contrary contained in any trust instrument to invest its money and funds in any bonds, debentures, mortgages, stock, shares and other securities that it may consider proper for investments;

(f) to federate, affiliate or co-operate with any university, college, school or other institution, body or person to achieve the objects of the University and to enter into any agreement for that purpose.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

7 (1) The Board shall consist of the following Governors:

(a) the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the President, the Academic Vice-President and the Administrative Vice-President, ex officio;
